TRITES PAYS VISIT TO ISKUT PROPERTY

Findings of Field Party Will Determine Where Option on Mine Is to Be Taken Up.

A. B. Trites, well known British Columbia mining man, one of the owners of the Premier Mine and now president of the Pacific Mines Ltd., was a passenger aboard the Princess Charlotte Saturday afternoon returning to Vancouver after a visit of inspection to the Iskut mine on the river bearing that name which flows into the Stikine which his company recently optioned. The property is a gold-silver-lead proposition and a party of five men has been left in the field to make investigations upon which will depend whether or not Mr. Trites will take the option up. The owners of the mine are Wrangell people. Harry Townsend, well known in Stewart, was another member of Mr. Trites' party. H disembarked at Ketchikan whence he will proceed to Stewart.

Mrs. Trites and Miss Bonnalie also made the trip north and toured southeastern Alaska while Mr. Trites was up the Iskut River.

TOUR PARTY HERE

A Millard tour party of forty persons from Buffalo and environs arrived in the city from Vancouver on the Prince Charles this morning and will proceed this afternoon on the same steamer to make the round trip to Stewart, Anyox and Massett Inlet, returning here on Thursday morning and proceeding East by the regular train that day.

James Simmons was fined $25, with the option of thirty days' imprisonment, in city police court this morning for drunkenness.

IN "RED HAIR" CLARA BOW IS GOLD DIGGER

Clara Bow, the vivacious, lovely and startling star of "It," has made a new American comedy. She romps through a series of natural sequences in a truly hilarious fashion that recaptivates those who have been previously ensnared by the Bow personality and leads new hearts to do homage. In "Red Hair," Clara Bow is truly the mad-cap of the screen. She knows American life and portrays it honestly, yet humorously. She is indeed a lovable and loving "gold digger."

TRAINED ANIMALS IN MID-WEEK PICTURE

Trained animals—ten of them—supplement the efforts of a large and capable human cast to contribute something different for the entertainment of local screen patrons in "The Shepherd of the Hills."

This film version of the Harold Bell Wright novel produced by Charles R. Rogers for First National Pictures is the mid-week attraction here.

Albert Rogell directed the picture, with five animal trainers supplementing his efforts when animals were working in the scenes.

A bear, a deer, a wolf, a racoon, a marten, a squirrel, a dog, two mules and a horse represent the trained animals portion of the cast. Thousands of sheep and many other domestic animals represent the animal "extras" of the company.

STRANGE SECRETS OF SCOTLAND YARD SHOWN IN LON CHANEY PLAY

Strange secrets of Scotland Yard are bared in Lon Chaney's new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer starring vehicle, "London After Midnight," an uncanny mystery play directed by Tod Browning. Chaney plays a Scotland Yard man in an amazing adventure in a haunted house, with Marceline Day, Conrad Nagel, Henry B. Walthall and a notable cast.

A. Allen, for having liquor in a public place, to wit a restaurant, was fined $50, with the option of thirty days' imprisonment by Magistrate McClymont in city police court this morning. Thos. Woodhouse, for the same offence, was similarly dealt with.

Kenneth Cecil, Indian, was fined $15 and $.50 costs with the option of fourteen days' imprisonment, in city police court this morning for drunkenness.

Mrs. Anna Lawler arrived in the city on the Prince Rupert this morning from Ketchikan for a visit with local friends.

GRANT MAHOOD IS RERE AGAIN

FORMERLY WELL KNOWN STEWART MINE OPERATOR IS NOW PRINCIPAL OF TORONTO CONCERN

Grant Mahood, formerly a prominent operator in the Stewart field and now one of the principals in the recently organized Alexandra Gold Mines Ltd., of Toronto, arrived in the city at the end of the week en route to Stewart after a visit in the Smithers district to examine properties in that field in which his company is interested. The organization now has the controlling interest formerly held by E. G. Brown of Vancouver in the Hyland Basin property in the Babine mountains and this is one of the properties which Mr. Hahood inspected. The Alexandria Co. also owns everal well located claims in the Topley field upon which it is probable that considerable work will be carried out his season.

NORWEGIAN MOVING PICTURE MAN AND OPERA SINGER HERE

In the course of a tour of America, Lyder Selvig, Oslo, Norway, moving picture man, and Erik Bye, noted Norwegian opera singer, arrived in the city from Edmonton on Saturday afternoon's train on their way to Ketchikan and Petersburg, Alaska. In all cities of importance on the continent, Mr. Selvig is exhibiting the feature moving picture "Norway of Today," said to be a very interesting film, while Mr. Bye sings various Norwegian folk songs in connection with the exhibition. Jack Selvig, president of the local Lief Erickson Society, has been making an effort to have the show staged here while Mr. Selvig and Mr. Bye are in the district. Both Mr. Selvig and Mr. Bye are accompanied by their wivs.

Around The World With Sport Fans

(By The Tramp)

During the past week all eyes have been turned on the Olympic games at Amsterdam and the record made by Canadian athletes has surprised the world. Vancouver contributed considerably to this success but Toronto made probably the largest showing although there was not one that distinguished himself or herself like the lad Williams. Speaking of this runner the Vancouver Sun says: "Percy Williams is Vancouver's own world's champion. There is no other town or city can lay claim to even the tiniest share of the honor which this fleet-footed, clean-living young athlete has brought to his own home town. Williams, winner of the traditional Olympic laurel wreath, was born, raised schooled and trained here—has lived all his life in Vancouver—and, what is more, is regarded not only as a model athlete, but a model youth and scholar in every sense of the word."

A recent number of the Toronto Globe says: "Yesterday's session of the International Olympic Committee at Amsterdam decided that hereafter there will be no soccer or tennis on the Olympic program, and advanced as the reason for their action the dissatisfaction that continually arises over the amateur definitions in vogue in the respective games. The free-and-easy methods employed in the goverance of soccer and the slipshod tactics of the tennis governing bodies, accentuated by the Tilden incident, are incompatible with the tenets of amateurism as defined and recognized throughout the world by the International Olympic Committee and the Olympic committees of the various nations. Here is a real chance for lacrosse. The latter is not a recognized Olympic competitive sport, being down on the card as "demonstrational" only. Now it behooves England, Canada, and the United States, all with lacrosse teams at Amsterdam, to convince the International Committee that the Canadian national pastime is a highly desirable feature for the Olympics of 1932, which will be held in Los Angeles.

Here's an interesting baseball comment taken from the Victoria Times: Miller Huggins, who has his Yankees so far out in front that he can look along the road as he travels, names Foxx, Barnes, Reeves, Kress and Durocher as the best young players in the American League this year. Foxx and Reeves were round last year, of course, but they didn't get enough work to classify them as veterans. By almost common consent Foxx, the great all-round kid of the Athletics, is rated as the best young player in the league. Bucky Harris says there is no question about it, and next to Foxx comes his young shortstop, Reeves. Harris doesn't orate so much about Barnes. Some of the experts think that Huggins booted one when he didn't give even a tumble to Cissell or Brannon and young Regan of the Red Sox. But they don't dispute him in the opinion that his Henry Johnson and Big Ed Morris are the best of the young pitchers.
