COMMISSION REFUSES TO RECOMMEND

Letter From City Council to the Police Commission Filed After Long Discussion.

On the reading of a communication from the City Council asking for a final decision as to what they recommended in connection with the cancelling of the license following a conviction in the Zarelli case, the letter was ordered filed and no action was taken on it. The resolution to file was moved by Commissioner Macdonald and seconded by Commissioner Hill, and supported by the mayor.

In speaking to the resolution Commissioner Macdonald said the commissioners were elected just as were the aldermen. Formerly there was a political touch to the commission but now they had just as much backing as the aldermen. The council was not going to shove any responsibility on him that he was not willing to assume. He had no idea of being responsible to the council. He would not waste time discussing questions over which they had no authority.

Commissioner Hill said that they had made recommendations in the past of which no notice had been taken. He was not sure if these reached the council. He discussed the matter of discrimination against Zarelli.

Mayor's Stand.

The mayor said that some of the aldermen did not know what they were talking about, when they said they had the impression that the chairman was not one way or the other. He had been opposed to cancelling Zarelli's license because it would seem like discrimination. Fotos, whose license was cancelled, was playing blackjack which was an illegal game, and there were other features that looked bad. In Zarelli's club they were playing poker, something to which it was understood there was no objection.

Commissioner Hill suggested that the police should be backed up in enforcing the law. The only objection he had against the raid was that it was done without the consent of the chief. If they did not uphold the police it was no use trying to enforce the law. When there was evidence against a man action should be taken.

No Interference.

Commissioner Macdonald said that the act under which the conviction was got was known to be going on. They were told that as long as the professional element was kept out there would be no interference. Blackjack was illegal, poker was not. Zarelli had been made a kind of a goat. Some of the aldermen had pointed out the fact that gambling was going on. All gamblers, however, did not play cards. Some gambled in real estate. A number of the aldermen had not sand enough to back up their feelings. He never intended to be the tool of the City Council.

ONE BIG UNION NOW HAS A BRANCH HERE

A branch of the One Big Union has been formed here with several unions joining. Among these are the Fishpackers, the Prince Rupert Industrial (formerly the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers), the Loggers Union, and some of the Longshoremen and Machinists.

The Unions that seem decided not to join are the Engineers, the Carpenters, the Retail Clerks, the Fishermen and the Typographical Union. In the Longshoremen and the Machinists there are a large number opposed to breaking away from the International and it is probable that there may be a split.

Just what will be the outcome even the men themselves do not seem to know.
