CITY ANNUAL GATHERING OF FISHERIES ASSOCIATION

he convention of the Canadian Fisheres Association at Prince Rupert next year. T. H. Johnson, Vice-president of the association, who will in the ordinary curse of events become president next car, started the work some time ago and Saturday night he followed it up a little dinner given by him in honor of F. W. Wallace, editor of the Canadian Lisherman, who has spent several days in the city. Those present were formed into a committee to further the interjests of the event and to bring all possible pressure to bear to secure it for rince Rupert. Those on the committee re T. H. Johnston, manager of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Company; Mayor McMordie, D.S.O., Col. J. W. Nicholls, president of the Board of Trade; James Lee, secretary of the local branch of the Canadian Fisheries Asociation; D. B. Finn, director of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station; John Davey, buyer for the Cold Storage, and R. M. Winslow, sales manager for the same institution; Adam Mackie, fisheries inspector; Pete Lorenson, manager of the Royal Fish Co.; Jarvis McLeod, customs collector; Captain Morrison, agent for the Deep Sea Fishermen's Union and H. F. Pullen, managing editor of the Prince Rupert one temper, badly frayed and showing Daily News.
