WALL STREET AND ELECTIONS

Wall Street has been giving odds on Hoover in the present United States election and that is a pretty good ARMISTICE DAY indication of what the result will be tomorrow. However sometimes Wall Street makes a mistake and this may be one of the errors of judgment. It is noticed that the tendency of forecasters of the past few days has been to show that Smith is gaining ground and the result may Two Minutes Silence to Take yet be a surprise.

It is said that in the first campaign of Grover Cleveland won from Benjamin Harrison the opening odds were 6 to 5 on Harrison.
