Senor Carlos de Silva, Brazilian consul at Vancouver, was a passenger aboard the Princess Alice yesterday afternoon returning south after a brief trip to Juneau on official duties.

Robt. C. McLaren, fire chief at Dawson, and Mrs. McLaren were passengers aboard the Princess Alice going through to Vancouver. They plan to spend the winter outside.

Andrew Sostad, manager of the Engineer mine, was a passenger aboard the Princess Alice yesterday bound for Vancouver. The mine being temporarily closed down, Mr. Sostad will spend the winter south.

John A. Anderson, the newly appointed road superintendent for Atlin district, has been in the city for the past few days from Alice Arm on business at departmental headquarters here, sailed by the Catala last night on his return north.

The office of Norman A. Watt, government agent, did not look very much like the customary weekly half-holiday Saturday afternoon. Some twenty local young ladies were taking civil service type-writing examinations and there was a great clatter of machines. The examinations were conducted by Mr. Watt.

Russell M. Smith, local agent for the Union Steamship Co. and the Canadian Pacific Express Co., and Mrs. Smith returned to the city on the Catala last evening after spending a three weeks vacation in Vancouver. F. D. Nealon of Union Steamship Co. head offices in Vancouver, who has been relieving here during Mr. Smith's absence, will return south on the Catala tomorrow afternoon.

Matthew Watson, Carcross (Y. T.) merchant, and Mrs. Watson were passengers aboard the Princess Alice yesterday afternoon going south on a holiday trip.

Rt. Rev. Joseph R. Crimont of Juneau, Bishop of the Roman Catholic Church in Alaska, was a passenger aboard the Princess Alice yesterday afternoon bound for a trip to Seattle.

It was 3.50 yesterday morning before the regular passenger train, due from the East at 3.30 Saturday afternoon, arrived. Engine trouble developing just east of Endako was the cause of the delay.

A. R. Holtby, superintendent of the B. and B. department of the Canadian National Railways returned to the city on yesterday morning's late train after a trip to Prince George and points beyond on official duties.

John B. Seguin, employee of the White Pass Railway & Navigation Co. and brother of Jules Seguin of this city, was a passenger aboard the Princess Alice yesterday afternoon going south from Skagway for a trip to Seattle.

Envoy George Clifton, local officer in charge of Salvation Army work at Metlakatla, and Mrs. Clifton returned from the north on the Princess Alice yesterday afternoon after having attended the recent native congress of the Army in Ketchikan.

Oliver Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Adams of Massett, sailed by the Prince Charles Saturday night on his return to his home on the Islands after having spent three months in the Prince Rupert General Hospital with a broken leg, the result of a cannery accident.

Roy Lancaster arrived in the city on yesterday morning's late train from McBride, where he has been located recently in the service of the Canadian National Railways. He will be married this evening to Miss Stella Nickerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Nickerson.

W. E. Williams K. C., after having spent a week at the Billmor mill, which is now nearing completion and will soon be ready for operation, sailed last night by the Prince George on his return to Vancouver.

J. K. Frost, formerly of Prince Rupert and Terrace, arrived in the city on yesterday afternoon's train from Vanderhoof, where he has been spending the past summer engaged in Forest Branch work, and sailed last night on the Prince George for Victoria where he now makes his home.

Bringing out the years final big crowd of Yukoners going south for the winter, C. P. R. steamer Princess Alice, Capt. Thomas Cliff, made her last call of the season in this port from 3.45 to 5.30 yesterday afternoon, being southbound from Skagway and other Alaska ports to Vancouver and Victoria. There were 220 passengers aboard the Princess Alice including the following fifteen who disembarked here: Arthur E. Gordon, Vancouver civil engineer; Joseph Comadina, Prince Rupert laborer; J. S. Mooney, Whitehorse trader; Pete Dien, Atlin clerk; John W. Casey, Petersburg cook; Mrs. L. Anderson, Ketchikan; Samuel Wright, Vancouver baker, and Mrs. Wright; George Clifton, etlakatla (B.C.) mariner, and Mrs. Clifton; Col. George Phillips, Salvation Army, Vancouver; Col. Ernest Sims, Salvation Army, Winnipeg; William Smyth, Ketchikan miner; David Barlow, Seattle traveller, and Charles Arthur, Ketchikan lumberman.

J. W. Moorehouse sailed Saturnight on the Prince Charles for Massett.

Foster Willan sailed Saturday afternoon by the Prince George on a brief business trip to Anyox.

Ernest Unwin sailed Saturday night by the Prince Charles for a two weeks trip to Port Clements and other Island points.

Cases of Joe Seymour and Alex Dennis, Indians, committed for trial on charges of theft from the halibut boat Tramp, are adjourned in County Court until the return of W. E. Fisher, crown prosecutor, from a trip to Victoria. It is possible that a recent Supreme Court ruling in Vancouver that Magistrate McClymont has no jurisdiction as a juvenile court judge may affect at least one of the accused in this case.

The old plank sidewalk on the south side of Second Avenue between Fifth and Sixth Streets was being torn up this morning preparatory to the laying of a concrete walk there.

Miss Jean Stalker sailed by the Prince George last night on a holiday trip to Vancouver.
