DAILY EDITION

ANTI-NEGRO CAMPAIGN Yesterday despatches brought news of an anti-Negro campaign in Australia in which colored people are being banished from the country and other nationalities are included in the anti-immigration movement. Like Canada, there is a desire in Australia to make it an all- plans. "I'm really an individualist," he "Good heavens, no!" ejaculated Wilwhite country, but at the same time it must be remembered that went into details. "No one seriously liam T. We do not mean to be apologists for people of any color or race but if we are to look for world peace and real democracy we must cultivate a spirit of tolerance which is wholly opposed to that indicated in yesterday's despatch.

Usually when times are rather bad in a country, there is a cry against somebody who is filling a position which a white man might fill. Under our democracy this is taken advantage of by those who wish to raise opposition to the government of the day, whatever party it may happen to be. Such a cry as that in Australia may at times LOCAL REGIMENT TO BE REPRE- stopped at conscription of man power. become so accentuated as to sweep a party from power and, this being the case, usually both sides are quick to accede to any outrageous demands.

ALICE ARM PROSPECTS

There seem to be good prospects of a busy time at Alice Arm place last evening at the armory, busi- lotte Islands, and plans on operating it this year. A number of the mines will be working and the new ness consisting of election of officers the year round. company organized here will undertake the installation of water for the coming season and the receiving and light and power facilities. It is understood that the Dolly of reports covering last year's activit There is another slide on the rail-Varden mine may possibly be worked, an arrangement with the complicated ownership having been brought to a point where it may possibly result in the mine operating again. The camp will share with Stewart and other points the prosperity following the loosening up of June and there will also be at least one representative of the local regiment FORMER ESSINGTON

SPRING, ALWAYS DULL

The early spring is always rather a dull time in Prince Rupert. The annual close season for halibut is not felt to any great extent until it is about over and this year the early halibut catches have and H. B. Eastman. been sold at such low prices that fishermen have had no money to spend. Now, however, there is likely to be a change. Fish prices have improved and before April is over the probability is that Prince Rupert will be quite busy. As it is there is very little unemployment and what there is will likely end within a week or two.

For a number of years past, spring has been a dull time. Anyone listening to local merchants would imagine it was worse and IT looks as if pickled goods are all worse every year, but they forget. This spring is much like others. right but we do not care to have Business usually begins to improve in April and keeps getting better friends who get that way. with a climax in October or November. The probability is that the present year will be much the same as others in that respect, only NOTHING makes a person feel so

WHAT I MIGHT HAVE BEEN

As Told to Harold C. Burr By WILLIAM T. TILDEN, 2d.

OD didn't give William T. Tilden, 2d, the right kind of throat muscles. And the result is today Tilden has to be content just to be a spectator in the darkened red-and-gold Metropolitan on opera nights. Otherwise he might have been a singer himself upon that glittering stage

But the former national tennis champion and Davis Cup marvel, always the portsman, accepts that disappointment philosophically.

"I should have liked to be a singer," confesses he whom the devotees of the popular court game affectionately call Big Bill. "But it isn't a thwarted ambition by any stretch of the imagination. The Almighty simply didn't give me the voice. It just wasn't therethat's all there was to it."

Tilden was just back from his defeat at Wimbledon last summer. But in tennis the vanquished is welcomed home the same as the victor. The big ,50 Philadelphian was coaxed into an anteroom for interviewing purposes between
