FREE TRADE STRUGGLE HAS BEGUN AGAIN, SAYS FORMER PREMIER -TORIES WILL SWAMP COUNTRY

struggle has begun again, David Lloyd George declared in addressing the Liberal Industrial Conference today. Protection, he said, would be the cry of Dr. the Tory party under another name at the next election. Up to the present, he continued, the Tories had irrigated a few industries with tariffs. Next, it would be iron and steel. "It means the bursting of the dam," the former "100 per cent" in most Nova Scotia Premier declared. "All the industries of this country will be inundated and many hopelessly swamped."

LISTENED TO PREACHING IN OPEN AIR AND SHARED IN BIG CHURCH FESTIVAL

EVERYONE RELIGIOUS

Morrison Tells of Early Days in Nova Scotia and of Ancient Customs

HALIFAX, N.S., March 29.-The days when religious worship was practically communities, in spite of the fact that to attend church on Sunday meant travelling a distance of five to twentyfive miles, on foot, by rowboat or sledge, were recalled here recently in a paper read before the Nova Scotia Historical Society by Dr. M. D. Morrison, on "The Religious Exercises of the Early Presbyterian Settlers of Cape Breton." One of the most interesting passages of the paper was the description of the annual "open air communion" of 1872 when thousands of ardent devotees sat five hours in a downpour of rain to hear the words of their minister and partake of communion. In those days in Cape Breton the "family altar" was a part of every home and B.C. Pullet Extras, 3 doz. .. 98¢ "the weird, wild music of the psalm"
