DAILY EDITION.

Saturday, July 12, 1919.

Minister of Lands Busy for District.

We have to thank the Minister of Lands who is also the member for the district for securing that extra twenty-five thousand dollars to be spent here in house building. The mayor and Council had made application for more but it lay for the member to give the cabinet that first hand information secured through his recent visit here as to the needs of the city in the way of housing. When the minister was here he said that he hoped to be able to secure more money for the project but all depended on how much was required for the other cities and municipalities.

With thirty houses built for returned soldiers and with the large number of new buildings which are being planned by private enterprise the city should be able to cope with the local situation. The Prince Rupert Housing, Ltd., is doing excellent work in financing a number of houses, but they still have more money to loan on new buildings, all of which it is expected will be taken before very long.

There will be a shortage of houses for some time to come, possibly for years, but it is satisfactory to see that so many residents have faith in the future here and are putting some of their savings into new houses.

Attack on Methodists Quite Unwarranted.

The July number of Resources, that excellent monthly which deals so efficiently with local developments, has an unwarranted slur on the Methodists of Canada. It criticises them for asking for the abolition of the Canadian Senate. It also criticises them for being Bolsheviks.

The Methodists are well able to take care of themselves and do not need a defender. It is fair, however, to draw attention to the fact that the Methodists responded to the call to arms at the opening of war with just as much alacrity as members of other churches, that the Methodist parsons are right up to date theologically and often rather in advance of the times; that they stand for the protection of the weak, especially against that insidious and dangerous enemy whiskey; that they are among the leaders in social and moral reform, and fearlessly advocate the changes which they think necessary, even from the pulpit; that they line up with the clergy of other denominations for all desirable improvements in every community; that if they look for a better form of government than that which we have here now, it is only what all other thinking persons are also looking for, and if they object to the old men's home, yeelpet the Canadian Senate, killing the two most useful bills of the session at Ottawa, they are fully justified and will be backed by a very large majority of the people of Canada in their efforts to have the Senate abolished.

Methodists may be "poor things," but they are live things, so much alive that they sometimes get themselves disliked by the dead ones.

Eastern Prices on Community Silver

We just received a copy of the Robert Simpson Co. catalogue and find that our prices on Community Silver are exactly the same as theirs. We mention this as proof that we are trying to give our customers as good service as they can get anywhere.

Other things we can prove it by are Big Ben clocks, Waltham and other watches, Waterman pens, Rogers silver and almost any well known article.
