Sport

From the action of the school board it is very evident that all are in favor of providing the young people of the city with opportunities for enjoying good clean sport. One of the strong arguments used in favor of the school being built on the Acropolis Hill was that it would be near the recreation grounds.

Yachting has never been very popular in Prince Rupert, which is due perhaps to the fact that we have so little wind during the summer. The small motor boats are very convenient for running up the numerous little lagoons and bays where a sloop could not go.

While practising jumping the other evening Frank Morrison had the misfortune to fall and injure his right arm. The doctor was called but it was found that no bones were broken. Frank, who plays first base for the dry-dock baseball team will not be able to enter the game again for a few days.

The game which was scheduled to be played last evening between the Colts and the Hungry Nine was called off on account of rain. A few of the boys turned out for practise, however.

The sports committee elected at the St. Andrew's Society last evening will immediately take action in regard to making arrangements for regular matches among city teams. They are all enthusiasts and should be able to stage some good events during the fall.

CHINAMAN FINED FOR POSSESSING A STILL

Sam Yow Pays $150 Into Civic Exchequer—Was Arrested Last Night.

In the police court this morning Magistrate McMordie, Sam Yow, alias John Young, a Chinaman, was fined $150 or three months in default of payment for having a still in his possession. The man was arrested late last night in the lane of the eight hundred block between Second and Third Avenues by Constable Duff. The man was carrying the contraption beneath his arm, one of the newest types of stills which eliminates the worm.

ALDERMAN PERRY FIRES BACK AT COMMISSIONERS

justifiable stand in this particular case; that the precedent you have established in weakening on so vital a public question is a dangerous one, and it is not to be expected that the proposed resolution of Alderman Casey recommending that the Police Commission take steps to suppress gambling will have any good results.

(2.) It is also my personal opinion, subject to correction by the Commission, that protection has been afforded Zarelli; that the town has been rotten with professional gambling; that no instructions have been given to the Police, and that the mutterings at the last meeting of the Police Commission were the dying swan sounds of its weakening public usefulness, and that in asking me to furnish further evidence of professional gaming than I have already given from police records the Commission is seeking to evade their public duty.

(3.) Commissioner Macdonald is quoted as having said there was a lack of 'sand' in translating aldermanic convictions into action. He well knows the challenge cannot constitutionally be accepted because of privilege. It is the Commission that lacks sand, and this most conspicuously.

"Yours respectfully,
"CHARLES C. PERRY,
"Alderman."
