

Man in the Moon

Now there's nothing for the Democrats to do but explain why it all happened.

One good thing about the result of the U. S. election is that it prevents a lot of hungry Democrats getting Government jobs.

Just a week today the Liberal Convention will be held and then we shall see what we shall see.

Give us a candidate bold whose feet will never get cold; Who will fight with a will The political mill. There are such in town I am told.

Someone wants to know whether it is right to say "oats is coming to the elevator" or "oats are coming to the elevator." Jake says it would be more correct to say "oats ain't coming to the elevator."

The other day at a local theatre (never mind which) a rather bored individual on getting up to leave remarked: "That didn't seem so very long."

Talking about pests, it may be remarked that insect pests never talk politics.

Tomorrow night I am told there is to be a dance. The difference between it and a dance is between two and three dollars.
