NURSING STAFF ENJOYS OUTING

Party Given by J. Myhill Jones on Alice B. to Cannery and Shawatlans.

A most enjoyable party was given yesterday evening by J. Myhill Jones aboard his launch Alice B. when he entertained the nursing staff of the hospital to an excursion around the harbor. The jolly party of young people started off from the Prince Rupert Boat House shortly before eight and there were no stops made until the cannery was reached in Tucks Inlet. Here the party was shown over the plant and at the company's store light refreshments were served.

Following this the wrecked hulk of the "Delhi" was passed and the launch headed towards Shawatlans passage and running with the tide was soon up to the falls. Here all went ashore and after a big fire had been built under the trees a very dainty supper, prepared by the young ladies, was served. On the return trip chorus after chorus of laughter and song filled the air.

Among those present were: Misses Berringer, Paynter, C. Mitchell, M. Morgan, M. Hastie, F. Moore, M. Bunberry, N. Levy, F. Fraser and E. Stuart. Messrs. Currie, Smith, McCorkindale, S. Bazzett Jones, Evans, Mitchell, Rix, and J. Myhill Jones.
