LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Geo. Belknap was a passenger for the south by the boat last night.

H. St. G. Lee returned from a business trip to Terrace by the train last night.

Mrs. W. J. Nelson and little son returned from a brief trip up the line last evening.

G. C. Walker of Walker's Music Store, was a passenger for Anxox on the Prince Rupert last night.

Mrs. J. H. Thompson and son Archie who have been visiting in Alberta returned to the city by last night's train.

"Two years in Hell and back with a smile," the story of a Canadian soldier. See "Private Peat" at the Westholme tonight.

J. A. W. Bell of the Emerson sawmills, who arrived in the city on Saturday, returned to his home in Vancouver by the Grand Trunk steamer last night.

Miss Marguerite Kilpatrick, of Smithers, arrived in the city last night on a brief holiday. While here Miss Kilpatrick will be the guest of Miss Madeline Nelson.

Jack Kilpatrick the son of Supt. A. Kilpatrick, of Smithers, who has recently returned from overseas, arrived from the interior on the train last night, leaving later for the south by the Prince Rupert.

D. A. Zarelli and family were passengers for the south aboard the Prince Rupert last night. Mr. Zarelli has left the city on account of alleged discrimination against him by the police commission.

It will be interesting to many to know that at least one son is following in his father's steps very closely. Captain Barney Johnson's son is now apprenticed aboard his father's old ship the Prince Rupert.

Dr. R. E. Page returned to Stewart on the Prince John on Saturday after having spent the past few days in Prince Rupert. Dr. Page brought a patient down with him who is at present recovering in the hospital here.

Lieut. G. T. Williams, a well known property holder of this city, who has just returned from overseas service with the inland water transport, left for Victoria last night, after having spent the last few days in Prince Rupert in connection with business matters.

Among those leaving for the east on Saturday morning's train were Chas. B. Chamberlin and H. F. Chamberlin of Sewans, Saskatchewan, who have been visiting in the city for the past few days. They are returning to their farms after a brief sojourn in the west where they particularly enjoyed the mild climate after the scorching heat of the prairies.

There was an exceedingly large train from the east last night and many passengers arrived who transferred to the boat. A large number of coaches were required to take the people out of Edmonton from the fair which has been held there during the past week. Two sleepers were also dropped at Prince George. From reports received from passengers it appears that there was an accident west of Edmonton in which the observation car and one sleeper were derailed, which was probably the cause of the train's delay.

Synopsis of Land Act Amendments

Minimum price of first-class land reduced to $5 an acre; second-class to $2.50 an acre. Pre-emption now confined to surveyed lands only. Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is non-timber land. Partnership pre-emptions abolished, but parties of not more than four may arrange for adjacent pre-emptions with joint residence, but each making necessary improvements on respective claims. Pre-emptors must occupy claims for five years and make improvements to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation of at least 5 acres, before receiving Crown Grant. Where pre-emptor in occupation not less than 3 years, and has made proportionate improvements, he may, because of ill-health, or other cause, be granted intermediate certificate of improvement and transfer his claim. Records without permanent residence may be issued, provided applicant can make improvements to extent of $300 per annum and records same each year. Failure to make improvements or record same will operate as forfeiture. Title cannot be obtained in less than 5 years, and improvements cleared and cultivated, and residence of at least 2 years are required. Pre-emptor holding Crown grant may record another pre-emption, if he requires land in conjunction with his farm, without actual occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown granted land. Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesteads; title to be obtained after fulfilling residential and improvement conditions. For grazing and industrial purposes areas exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or company. Mill, factory or other building on timber land not exceeding 40 acres may be purchased; conditions include payment of stumpage. Natural hay meadows inaccessible by existing roads may be purchased conditional upon construction of a road to them. Rebate of one-half of cost of road, not exceeding half of purchase price, is made. PRE-EMPTORS' FREE GRANTS ACT.

The scope of this Act is enlarged to include all persons joining and serving with His Majesty's Forces. The time within which the heirs or devisees of a deceased pre-emptor may apply for title under this Act is extended from one year from the death of such person, as formerly, until one year after the conclusion of the present war. This privilege is also made retroactive. No fees relating to pre-emptions are due or payable by soldiers on pre-emptions recorded after June 26, 1918. Taxes are remitted for five years. Provision for return of moneys accrued, due and been paid August 4, 1914, on account of payments, fees or taxes on soldiers' pre-emptions. Interest on agreements to purchase town or city lots held by members of Allied Forces, or dependents, acquired direct or indirect, remitted from enlistment to March 31, 1920. SUB-PURCHASERS OF CROWN LANDS. Provision made for issuance of Crown grants to sub-purchasers of Crown Lands, acquiring rights from purchasers who failed to complete purchase, involving forfeiture, on fulfillment of conditions of purchase, interest and taxes. Where sub-purchaser does not claim whole of original parcel, purchase price due and taxes may be distributed proportionately over whole area. Applications must be made by May 1, 1920.

GRAZING. Grazing Act, 1919, for systematic development of livestock industry provides for grazing district and range administration under Commissioner. Annual grazing permits issued based on numbers raised; priority for established owners. Stock-owners may form Associations for range management. Free, or partially free, permits for settlers, campers or travellers, up to ten head.

Never forget to look through the classified list on Page 5.

UNIVERSITY RETURNED SOLDIER STUDENTS

The University of British Columbia has provided means whereby those students in Applied Science who enlisted during their University course or during their matriculation year and have intentions of proceeding in the fall, may resume their studies during the summer months. This provision has been made at the suggestion of returned soldier students who are desirous of completing those studies which were interrupted by enlistment, so that regular courses may be continued without undue difficulty.
