Remember the Days of the Grocer's Cracker Barrel?

Remember the Cracker Barrel from whose dusty cavern your grocer used to scoop your pound or half pound of crackers? Now your grocer sells Soda Biscuits in Sanitary Packages. Drug stores used to have their cracker barrels--their huge bottles of Castor Oil--Epsom Salts--Iodine, etc.--which used to stay in the store perhaps for years--to gradually grow weaker. Now, however, at Ormes you buy not just Iodine or Castor Oil--articles that carry two guarantees--the Rexall guarantee and Ormes that they are 100 per cent pure, guaranteed uniform.

Was Subject to BRONCHITIS Every Winter

Mrs. Wm. Healey, 524 Hill Street, London, Ont., writes: "My daughter, aged fourteen, was subject to bronchitis every winter. She would cough until she was sore from the exertion. Last winter a friend advised me to get a bottle of your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. so I got a small bottle to try and was delighted to find that before she had taken half of it her cough was completely relieved. I certainly feel justified in recommending it to those suffering from coughs and colds." Price 35c. a bottle, large family size 60c.; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MANY APPEALS TO BE HEARD

Busy Session for Municipal Court of Revision Forecast in List Just Posted

Prominent in the list of thirty-two appeals which will engage the attention of the civic court of revision which will open its sessions next Wednesday, will be those of the Canadian National Railway, which is evidently appealing the assessments on its waterfront land holdings, and the Grand Trunk Pacific Development Co. which is protesting valuations on townsite property. Lessees of waterfront land also appear to be appealing generally. Overvaluation of the land, and in some cases improvements, is claimed. The appellants include the Canadian National Railway, G.T.P. Development Co., P. Olazola, Flore Collart, Clementine Collart, Ralph Tyson, L. G. Moore, F. W. Hart, W. R. Bonfield, George H. Gutru, E. J. Walsh, F. Lanza and E. Bianco, W. B. McLaughlin estate, H. VALUE TO BRITISH COLUMBIA OF PEACE RIVER BLOCK

(continued from page one) contained within the belt was completed recently by the provincial authorities in co-operation with the federal government. It reveals the existence of extremely valuable stands of timber, large areas of agricultural land, big stretches of range land, and rich deposits of minerals.

It is estimated that of the 16,776 square miles in the belt 10,233 square miles are timbered, and 4,819 covered with commercially valuable forest. Altogether the stand of saw timber is estimated at 21,487,900 board feet. In addition, there is about 550,000 m.b.f. in the coast district suitable for ties, poles, shingle bolts, etc., making a total commercial stand of 22,037,900,000 board feet.

Total mineral production in the railway belt in 1926 was valued at $1,115,363, of which structural materials represented $850,000. Altogether the belt produced 1.66 per cent of the mineral output of the province.

It is estimated that 1,732,490 acres of land are suitable for agriculture within the belt. Of this 450,800 acres are in the coastal district; 986,240 acres in the Lytton and Kamloops districts; 177,280 in the Shuswap district; 79,360 in the Revelstoke district; and 28,800 in the Golden district.

Water powers form one of the most valuable assets in the railway belt. A detailed survey of available powers shows that enormous quantities of electricity could be developed within the belt for commercial purposes.

PEACE FARM LANDS The provincial authorities have not yet secured such detailed information on the Peace River Block. While it is much smaller than the railway belt it is regarded as strategically of enormous value. Of recent years the province has been working for the return of the block so that it could be used in subsidizing private interests to build a railway into the Peace River country as an extension to the Pacific Great Eastern Railway. The proposal is that railway builders could sell the land to settlers for agricultural purposes if transportation facilities were available, and thus recoup themselves for the cost of the railway. The block would provide a rich new farming area comparable to the wheat lands of the prairies, it is believed.

QUESTION OF AIM.

They had a dispute, and agreed to leave it to the military expert. "What bullet," they asked, "do you consider the deadliest?" For several minutes he remained in a brown study. Then he looked up with the air of one who has settled the matter finally and definitely. "The one that hits," he said--Humor.

Unpardonable Perspiration Odour readily avoided

What quality can match the beauty of a lovely skin? And what social error can so readily embarrass its possessor, as that subtle offence -- perspiration odour?

Of course, every one perspires. In this way nature rids the human system of one to two pints of moisture every day.

But this perspiration, so necessary and so healthful, need not be offensive.

Why not be sure of absolute personal daintiness? All you need to do is use Lifebuoy for face, hands and bath--and perspiration odour will vanish.

Lifebuoy, besides being a delightful, all-sufficient toilet soap, possesses mild but effective anti-septic qualities which clear away clogged pores, purify them, and make perspiration odourless.

To Keep Well Drink plenty of water, perspire freely, bathe often with Lifebuoy Soap.
