LOCAL NEWS NOTES

H. Hockin sailed by the Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon on a business trip to Stewart.

Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Brayfield of Anyox, who have been on a trip as far East as Winnipeg, are expected to arrive in the city on this afternoon's train. Mr. Brayfield is to participate in the ceremonial of the consecration of Archdeancon G. A. Rix as Bishop of Caledonia tomorrow.

On behalf of the committee appointed to investigate the advantages of having a harbor board appointed, M. P. McCaffery last night reported that the committee were not perpared to report definitely until they had had an opportunity of inspecting the work of harbor boards at other ports. This they proposed to do at no expense to the Prince Rupert Board.

All this as a result of the Athletics' double victory yesterday over Boston and the double downfall of the Yankees at the hands of Washington's Senators. Today the Mackmen and the Yanks are theoretically tied for first place but the Quaker City men have a slight advantage as they are coming on with a rush while New York is faltering.

St. Louis boosted their lead in the National League to five games by trouncing the Pirates while the Cubs were defeating Cincinnati.

> A great change had also been wrought during that time in the customs and beliefs of the native people. Whereas, they had no writen language three decades ago, almost all of them could now write the native language and many were proficient in English. Their attitude had changed from one of antagonism and indifference to one of peace and understanding and the teachings of Christianity had met with great success. Bitter wars which had been waged between the Indian and the Eskimos had now practically disappeared. The speaker referred to modes of transportation in the north as well as living conditions of the people now and yesteryear.
