LOCAL MAN WHO WAS KILLED FOUND OLD SKULL ON TOWNSITE

An ancient human skull believed to be at least four hundred years old which he found in the refuse of a supposed historic Indian village at Ritchie Point in this city was presented recently to the National Museum of Canada, through Harlan I. Smith, Dominion archaeologist, by the late George Osborne who lost his life on Saturday at Peterborough Ontario. The antiquity of the skull, believed to be that of an elderly person, was proved by the fact that large trees grew over the refuse.

Miss Kathleen Durham sailed last night on the Prince George for Victoria.

Joyous sparkle . . .
rare, dry flavor . . .
"Canada Dry,"
the drink
of connoisseurs

"CANADA DRY" is served at the embassies in Washington. It is served at the Savoy in London . . . at St. Moritz . . . in tens of thousands of homes in the Dominion. There must be some reason for this universal appeal.

"Canada Dry" is made from pure Jamaica ginger and other absolutely pure ingredients! It is blended with a care and skill which come from generations of makers.

This is really the reason for the distinction of "Canada Dry." The result? A really fine ginger ale which you can distinguish from all others as you distinguish a rare old wine. No wonder it is drunk wherever distinguished people gather! No wonder you will want to serve it to lend that final note of elegance to your dinners! No wonder it mixes well with other beverages.

"CANADA DRY"

This is the Hottest Package of 12 bottles—the most convenient way to buy "Canada Dry."
