Two Coast Amateurs to Join Victoria Team This Year in Professional

VICTORIA, Oct. 16 .- The appointment of Joe Smith, former manager of the Vancouver Monarchs, to have charge of the Victoria professional hockey team in the newly formed Pacific Coast League, is a popular move here. Stanley Patrick is in charge of the

In an interview here the new manager said:

"Only four of the most promising amateurs will be used in the new circuit, two in Victoria and two among the remaining teams,' he said. "But I don't want you to think that we are overlooking promising talent among the Simon-pures. We have severa. others in line, and they will get a chance when they show sufficient ability to mingle with faster com-

In Toronto the Boxing Commission refuses to license any public professional boxing tournaments except those put on by the Shamrock Athletic Club. It is claimed that a high standard of sport has been kept up by this club and it is not in the best interests of the sport to have other clubs competing.
