PARENTS' QUARRELS INFLUENCE CHILDREN

English Woman Physician Gives Her Views on Ties of Motherhood and Kindred Subjects

LONDON, Jan. 21.—Why do certain families of children quarrel violently over their games? According to Dr. Alice Hutchison, a well-known authority on children's and maternity hospitals in London, this friction is the inevitable result of superficial discord between the parents.

"As regards birth control," says Dr. Hutchoson, "I do say very clearly that birth control has wrecked numbers of marriages. I am not discussing the thus bringing about these question of, for, or against it. Birth control wrecks marriages because the maternal urge cannot be quenched so easily. If you put a difficulty in the way of that urge you will find women harboring a feeling of animosity against their husbands."

> Dr. Hutchison said she wanted to see children absolutely break the tie of dependence upon their mothers. * "We see the young man who won't marry because he won't leave his mother. People say: 'How beautiful!' The truth is that he won't leave his mother because he is a baby and won't break the tie. He can't do without her. We want fully grown men who will leave home ELEPHANTS ROAMED and take a wife not as a second mother but as a mate.
