

Ten Years Ago
in Prince Rupert

November 23, 1928
Capt. F. T. Saunders of Digby Island has been appointed commander of the fleet at a big maritime parade which will be held next week as a part of the peace celebration. Other members of the executive committee are Fred Stork, chairman, T. H. Johnson, Reginald Beaumont and J. H. Meagher. The Trades and Labor Council will also be represented in the parade.

Stewart people are expecting, now that the war is over, that Sir Donald Mann will soon make a start on the completion of the Bear River Railway. Much mining activity is promised at the camp, interest centering around the Bush mine of which R. K. Neill is in charge.

Sub-Inspector Adams of the Dominion police has informed the police commission that he has protested to the government against the smallness of fines imposed by Magistrate Carss in police court here.
