SPORT CHAT

With the advent of the bird hunting season, Anyox water craft are busy transporting hunters to the haunts of the ducks and geese. One successful party consisted of J. J. Beckett, C. S. McLachlan and James Wilson, while another was made up of George Lee, W. A. Gigot, A. S. Baillie, C. O. Fricker, J. Swanson and Charles McLachlan.

The new gymnasium of the Anyox Community League will be formally thrown open with a big carnival tonight, all arrangements having been completed to make the affair one of signal success. While the paint has been drying, badminton courts and basketball fittings have been put in place. These sports will get under way as soon as the floor is cleared after the carnival.

A five hole golf course for Vanderhoof people has been laid out on the farm of George Snell, three miles north of the town. The new course will afford devotees of the royal and ancient game an excellent opportunity to indulge in their favorite pastime and during the past two weeks golfers have been trying out the course with varying success. A golf club has been formed under the captainey of Harry V. Taylor.

ELKS' CARD PARTY

In the weekly bridge and whist tournament by the Elks' Lodge last night, the first prize went to Mrs. Anna Ross with a score of 2,837, while Mrs. Thomas Priest and Simon A. Swanson split the whist prize, being tied with a score of 203.

FOWL SUPPER KNOX CHURCH

Terrace Ladies Entertain ... Concert Follows With Addresses by Local Men

TERRACE, Oct. 22.—The Ladies Guild of Knox United Church served a fowl supper on Friday evening in the church. The fair was very well patronized, the seating capacity of the church being much overtaxed. A delicious supper was served and thoughly enjoyed by all present. Following supper a splendid musical program was rendered, as follows:

Vocal Duet—Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Allan.
Violin Selection—Miss [illegible]
Vocal Solo—Mrs. C. C. King.
Vocal Solo—Rev. A. W. Johnson.
Address—"We Stand on Guard For Thee," Capt. J. B. Coltman.
Vocal Solo—Mrs. G. H. Dyson.
Address—E. T. Kenney.
Solo—Rev. Wm. Allan.
Vocal Duet—Mr. and Mrs. H. Dyson.

The accompanists were Mrs. Keith and Mrs. Dyson.

E. T. Kenney in his address on behalf of the church board complimented the ladies on the success of the evening's entertainment and commended them for the splendid work they were carrying on in the interests of the church. He explained that the object of the supper was to raise funds to build a new chimney in the parsonage.

The proceeds of the evening's efforts was ninety five dollars.

The "Spirit" of the THREE MUSKETEERS

FOR France and the King . . . the Three Musketeers drew their long rapiers time and again, while their stars of fortune blazed bright and true. Were there ever such days of romance . . . or such nights? The King's Guard patrolling Paris with spurs clinking and scabbards rapping the cobbles, the lights of the wine shops twinkling in the dim-lit courts and streets! The spirit of Athos, Porthos and Aramis lives on forever.

Keep it Handy as an Emergency Measure

In case of sickness or accident, it is wise to keep a bottle of Hennessy Brandy handy.
