In the baseball game Monday played between the 'Hungry Nine' and the Colts the score ended in a draw. Both teams were playing at their best and the match was long drawn out. The Colts were playing Harry Astoria and Harry Menzie, but this did not daunt the rivals and they stuck it out making the score 14 to 14 in the eleventh inning. The game was a tie. Another game will be played on Friday night, the same teams contending.

Arrangements are now on hand to have a football game on Saturday for the Peace Celebration Day. Two local teams will play.

It is very likely that the Prince Rupert ball team will proceed to Anyox on Saturday where they will play the mine boys. Arrangements are also on hand to bring the winners of the Commercial League in Vancouver to play a game. Nothing definite as yet can be announced.

Entries for the singles in the ninth annual clay court tennis That prior to the erection of any wharf championship tourney in Chicago closed with 170 players, exceed- ter of ing all records for the event overhead

The Prince Rupert baseball team had a work out on the Acropolis Hill grounds yesterday Department of Lands, evening. The hard work of practising is necessary if they intend to pull off the honors against some of the teams which they are going to play.
