ETHEL CLAYTON IN SURPRISING PICTURE

A most surprising picture is "The Witch Woman," the new World-Picture in which charming Ethel Clayton is starred. This unusual and very entertaining production will be shown tonight at the Empress Theatre. "The Witch Woman" is a picture that you will not soon forget. It is so unusual, so fascinating, so swift-moving that it grips your attention and holds it firmly from first to last. Ethel Clayton has one of the very best roles of her entire career in this production, and she is splendidly supported by a particularly able company. The scenic effects are superb.

"SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE" AT WESTHOLME TONIGHT

Constance Talmadge, the famous movie star is to be seen here tonight in a better role than ever. "Sauce for the Goose" is the title of the vehicle used by this versatile lady for the display of her talents. She plays a brilliant part and those who have seen it speak with enthusiasm of it. The Fox comedy and the selection by the famous Westholme orchestra round out a good program.

There are no miscereants at the police court today.
