Richmond's | COCHET PLAYED SUPER-HUMAN TENNIS TO WIN

GAME YESTERDAY RECALLS FORMER EVENTS IN WHICH FRENCHMAN SNATCHED VICTORY FROM DEFEAT

The victory of Henri Cochet over Big Bill Tilden in the Davis Cup series recalls to mind other occasions on which Cochet played super-human tennis to win glery for his country.

At Wimbledon a year ago in the finals Tilden was leading Cochet two sets to one and in the last set with Tilden to serve the games were 5-1 in the American's favor. There seemed to be nothing to do but await the American's victory, for Tilden's cannon-ball service had been working to perfection and his play had been on the lines all the way through. Then it was that Cochet won seventeen points in succession to tie the score at 5 all. Tilden was but a shadow of himself in the last two sets while Cochet was inspired and ultimately won amid such a scene as had never been experienced in the many years of tennis at Wimbledon, or for that matter anywhere in the world.

The other outstanding feat was in the Davis Cup at Philadelphia against W. M. Johnston last year. It was the final and deciding game of the series in which the score at that time stood 2-2. Both players were nervous and Unger, E. Antonelli. made mistakes but Cochet managed to keep the lead till the score was two Gillis, P. Stegavig, B. Smith, M. Micklesets to one and five games to two in son, A. Letourneau, B. Brooksbank, E. Lord Burghley's victory in the 400 Cochet's favor. Then Johnston won the Johnson. were disappearing when he became 30love in the tenth game.

Cochet thought of the recovery he had made against Tilden. A flash of that same energy and genius returned to him and at this critical stage he won !! four points in succession to give him, Phone 765 the match and his country the Davis " very keenly contested game. At times the play was too keen and referee Woods had to penalize Earl Gordon for a too free use of the stick.

Goals for the Rovers wer scored by Pembina Peerless Egg $12.00 J. Campbell while the two tallies for the Rangers were made by C. Woods. This youngster bids fair to make a name for himself, his style being reminiscent of "Doughie" Spring the famous "Salmonbelly exponent. Joe Gillis starred for the Rangers and his style, somewhat awkward looking but very effective reminds one of Dot Crookall the former Vancouver star.

Teams were as follows: Rovers-J. Gillis, A. Gillis, R. Maizzie, H. Morgan, J. Campbell, C. Erickson, E. Gordon, B.
