TO BOYS' BAND

ACCOUNT OF TRIP GIVEN BY W. * GILCHRIST AND BANDMASTER

There was a good attendance last evein the basement of the United Church when the parents and friends of the Boys' Band gathered to welcome back the boys and to hear the account of W. Gilchrist who was in charge of the trip representing the Committee and of the Bandmaster T. Wilson.

Both speakers gave an interesting summary of the trip commenting specially on the hospitable reception received at all points on the journey and at Edmonton. The conduct of the boys had been exemplary and their musical education had been materially benefited. The speakers thanked all who had contributed to the success of the venture.

Col. McMordie expressed his personal satisfaction at the record of the band and referred to the benefit that the city derived from it too. He congratulated the committee, the boys and their band-

Rev. A. Wilson was glad to have the opportunity to express his admiration of the band. As an old bandsman himself he realized fully the value of the training in musical knowledge, a training that was lasting and of real cultural

During the evening the Band rendered several selections and the improvement their playing was favorably comseveral selections and the improvement in their playing was favorably commented on, due no doubt to the steady practice maintained during the trip.
