Bayview and Emperor Starting Operations-Hyder Lead on Texas Creek also Busy-General Activity in Portland Canal

H. W. Heideman, consulting engineer for the Bayview Mining Co., is about to start development on the company's property at Stewart. A contract will be let in the future for 200 feet of drift on what is known as the lower showing, being on the Lucille vein, at an elevation of 2950 feet and striking up the hill. This Mr. Hiedeman considers to be a strong vein and the work which he contemplates will give a depth of about 150 feet. The matter of tram construction on the Bayview will be left in abeyance pending results of this development work. This vein is one of severa! on the Bayview which are noted for their silver values.

banner Day

for Candidates in The News Campaign

Every candidate—as well as those who are considering entering the campaign—is urged to get in touch with the Campaign Manager between now and 8 o'clock Thursday night. Those who are considering entering the campaign are urged to do so at once and get their campaign under way before Thursday night. Those who are entered but have not yet begun an active campaign are afforded the opportunity to get busy now and make Thursday their Banner Day. Whether you have subscriptions to turn in or not you are asked to communicate with the Campaign Manager between now and 8 o'clock Thursday night. We are anxious to know just who is who in the campaign. Your report by Thursday night will place you on a solid foundation.

Thursday is to be the Banner Day

The real purpose of "Banner Day," Thursday, August 2, is to give every candidate an opportunity to get in touch with the Campaign Manager. There are a number of candidates whose names have been entered whom the Campaign Manager has never met personally. Each and every person entered is expected to be heard from on "Banner Day.' The management in anxious to know just who is who in this distribution. There seems to be a goodly number who have accepted The Daily News offer who, so far as the Campaign' Manager knows, have made no apparent effort. So "Banner Day" is report day and every participant is to be heard from.

Remember to report to the Campaign Manager, in The Daily News office, sometime Thursday. Try to have some subscriptions to turn in, but even if you do not have subscriptions, you should report any way. If it is inconvenient for you to call at campaign headquarters in person, write or telephone the Campaign Manager, informing him of the progress you are making in the campaign. We want to know just "who's who" in the campaign. You can help us and yourself by reporting before 8 p.m. Thursday and making it a real "Banner Day." If you cannot come to the office in person, it will be very easy for you to write or telephone the Campaign Manager.

Every candidate will find it to his or her advantage to strive to secure at least one "club" of subscriptions to be turned in on "Banner Day." A "club" is any combination of subscriptions totaling $15 worth, and entitles the candidate to 100,000 EXTRA FREE VOTES. But whether you have one "club" one subscription, or no subscriptions whatever, it is your business to report to the Campaign Manager on next Thursday. This will be a big help to us in finding out just "who's who" in the campaign. It will be a big help to you, as you will find the more trips you make to campaign headquarters the more information you will gain about the campaign, and how to make it the biggest possible success for yourself. So please comply with this request and report sometime Thursday.
