MY KITCHEN NOTEBOOK by Mary Blake Domestic Science Counselor

Hot Cocoa is a Mother's Great Ally

I don't know what we'd do without hot cocoa, for say what you will, children do tire of the steady round of that all-important food, milk.

Cocoa Should Be Made With WHOLE Milk

You won't make such a mistake, if you prepare the children's cocoa with Carnation Milk. There's no way to rob the rich, whole milk of Carnation of one tiny particle of cream.

CARNATION MILK gives to cocoa a rich smoothness and extra food value obtainable in no other way—just as it does to all cooking.
