EXTRACTS FROM VICKERS' DIARY—1752

Judges of good liquor in many lands have echoed the opinion of this old English Merchant. Far will you travel to find the equal of this excellent Gin.

"Brother John who doth travel the road hath writ me that a Merchant in the service of Mr. Josiah Billings, Ship's Chandler of great renowne in Liverpool, hath bestowed high praise upon the quality, flavour and strength of Vickers' London Dry Gin. Many cases have been contracted for, to be billed to agents abroad—good tidings."
