

Man in the Moon

Now that we have a new council I would suggest that the members start off right by treating those who sat back and criticized last year so that they may get rid of them from the bleachers this year.

I beg to congratulate Our noble council of eight And the mayor at the head (No, not one who's dead), Never may their ardor abate.

Now folks, we have our council, our mayor, our trustees, and our taxpayers. Now, all together, Off!

The apple is known in history but the grapefruit is in the public eye.

I find it difficult to estimate what will be the population of Prince Rupert by the end of the year when this new council gets busy.

Then here's to the mayor of Prince Rupert, And here's to the man on the street.

Here then is a toast To the one I love most— To myself who drinks them so neat.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

January 18, 1919 Major George B. Hill, Lieut. R. L. Clothier and Nursing Sister L. D. Hull have arrived at Hall-Ex enroute back to Prince Rupert from the war.

Jack Harkley was acquitted at the Supreme Court Assizes here yesterday afternoon on a charge of having murdered Frank Martin at Stewart.

New laid eggs are selling for 90c a dozen in Prince Rupert today. The price of butter is 60c per pound.
