Well-Known Terrace Millman Underwent Operation at Montreal Few Days Ago

TERRACE, Jan. 18.-Word has been received by his family here that George Little underwent a very critical operation in the Medical Arts Hospital. Montreal, at the end of last week. Mr. Little, who has been in ill-health for some time, left here several weeks ago to consult with specialists in the east. He was operated on by Sir Henry Gray of Montreal. T. A. McMartin, for many years associated with Mr. Little in his Terrace and Smithers business interests, but who has been in the east for several years, is with Mr. Little in Montreal. Latest reports from him regarding Mr. Little's condition were favo able.

The denouement of the story with the boy and the girl trying to sacrifice themselves is as thrilling and exciting as it is logical. Joan Crawford, as the girl, gives a supreme exhibition of dramatic HOME OF MRS. MULDOON acting that entitles her to stardom in the future. "Four Walls" is considered one of the best drapreme exhibit of great emotion which should not be missed.
