

LADY ASTOR IN NEW ROLE

HEADS SPORTS ASSOCIATION

The new Women's International Amateur Rowing Association recently formed in London, has asked Lady Astor to become the first president. Australia, Egypt, France, Germany, Poland and Hungary are in the association as well as Great Britain.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

September 7, 1919
The fishing boat Alameda founded last night in Hecate Straits with 15,000 pounds of halibut on board. Capt. Hans Tiedman, Percy W. James and Louis Silvertson drifted for 18 hours in a skiff before being picked up by a trolling boat.

The prevailing halibut price here just now is 13.6c for first class fish and 8c for second.

The King and Winge is here with a catch of halibut, after having been on the rocks and re-floated. She will proceed to Seattle for repairs.

Correct this sentence: "I buy my stuff because it is good," said the magazine editor, "and I am not influenced by the author's reputation."
