WAR VETERANS' DANCE GREAT

Very Enjoyable Event at Skating Rink on Friday Night Well Attended.

On Friday evening the Great War Veterans' dance was well attended by the young people of the city. The spacious rink accommodated the crowd quite easily and dancing was continued until nearly three o'clock. Mr. Duff acted as master of ceremonies, whilst Mrs. Killen, Mrs. Vickers, and others served very excellent refreshments. A special feature of the evening was the highland schottische with pipe music. Harvey's five-piece orchestra played throughout and the encores were generously responded to.

MATTER OF PAINTING THE FEDERAL BLOCK

Final Statement Made by War Veterans Regarding Letting of Contract.

The following letter has been sent to M. M. Stephens, sec. treas. of the Northern B. C. Development Co., in reply to one recently received from him regarding the painting of the Federal Block:

"I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter 17th inst. With reference to the above, we wish to state that this Association has not taken up this matter of the painting of the Federal Block by Fred Schulze on behalf of any one individual member or members. The objection is based entirely on the grounds of his German birth.

"We don't think that 'Fritz' will paint the Federal Block. This closes the matter as far as the G. W. V. A. is concerned.

"Yours truly,
"SECRETARY."
