LIBERAL TRIUMPH

A correspondent at Victoria writes to say that the session which ended yesterday was a Liberal triumph. He says that before another session he believes there will have to be cabinet changes. Indeed, there is doubt expressed as to Premier Tolmie again leading the house. The correspondent says that in the press gallery the opinion was freely expressed that Pattullo and Manson were the only ones who knew anything about a good deal of the business which was being conducted. While realizing that the correspondent has Liberal views and an allowance must be made for his bias, it is pretty clear that T. D. Pattullo has already well justified the choice made for leader of the opposition. When he becomes premier he will doubtless function even better.
