Man in the Moon

There are all kinds of reformers but I never heard of one PRINCE RUPERT TIDES who was trying to abolish what we all hate-having to get up in the morning.

once got up at eight o'clock And it was awful early. could not get to school on time And have my head all curley.

In later years I rose at seven And it was early too envied those who rose at ten They were the chosen few.

And now I'm old and stay in bed As long as your could wish And I would like to rise at five Or earlier if you wish. Low 9:39 a.m. 3.6 ft.

Jake says the only time he likes to get up early is when he goes hunting or fishing. Then mostly High the bed is so uncomfortable he hates to stay in it.

Winston Churchill says England is the most wonderful island in the whole world. And I venture the opinion that Prince Rupert is the most wonderful Low city in the whole world. There is certainly none like it.

If you're feelin' tired and blue And you don't know what to do, Do nothin'.

If your appetite's not right, And your waistband's gettin For Vancouver-

Stop stuffin'. If your plans are awry, And you feel you want to cry, Go fishin'.

If you can't see far ahead, And wish that you were dead, Stop wishin'.

If you know you talk too much, And your neighbor's feelin' touch, Stop talkin'.

If your nerves are all askew, There is one good thing to do, Go walkin'.

If your're runnin' into debt, And can't pay for what you get, Stop buyin'.

If you'd like to reach the top, And are just about to stop, Keep tryin'.

-Grenville Kleiser.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

A Fable for Merchants and Salesman

THE was an insistent purchaser of local products. She knew the security of her home depended largely on herself, and all mothers like her-depended on their insistence of securing local products. For it was directly through the prosperity and increasing activity of local industry that the men folk of her country enjoyed secure positions and steady employment.

That is why, when shopping for an outer garment for her son, she demanded a local product. The store clerk hesitated and told her the article she required was out of stock at present, but that a certain foreign-made article was "just as good." She refused the foreign garment and left the store.

Back of this mother's insistence was a pride in the products of her homeland -the true peacetime patriotism.

This story has a moral for Merchants

The progress of British Columbia depends on increased production and increased purchasing of British Columbia products by the public. Be fair to yourself! Be loyal to British Columbia! Sell more British Columbia
