It is said that this is the first time in history that Vancouver has had a rain shortage.

Jake says it makes him feel sad to think about our savage ancestors. They dressed in skins and could not even play bridge. Think how we have advanced since then.

Now that Christmas is almost here we are all beginning to wonder at which store we can charge our Christmas presents.

Now that stock values have tumbled about as far as they possibly can without hitting bottom, Jake says they should be good for a little rebound pretty soon.
