

Copyright, 1927, by E. Phillips Oppenheim her thoughts had been transported to those vivid and very different hours through which she had reherself in the hard leather chair in the lost in a dense fog. Suddenly the door disordered room with the dead man opens and a man, evidently a house behind the screen and the dying ning. one not without adventure-probably ways the flame of his life flickering pening, but that this young man table. I could scarcely prevent him. weight champ, was considerable risk. Eagerly welcoming a peep into in the winds of death, a thousand should have known of her adven- He behaved very nicely and it of a surprise. Few, even of his the land of romance for which her menacing dangers against a single ture in Lombertson Square was a was he who told me who they supporters, had any idea that he Brown steps across the threshold and courage, iron will, iron self-control. within finds a man suffering from a courage, iron will, iron self-control. prehensible. She had arrived in a serious wound, who turns out to be At that moment the whole adventors and he confided, "is worthy of all re- on this Monday night was not so for outpointing work."

SYNOPSIS

FOUR TEAMS IN Colonel Dessiter, renowned explorer. He ture came back to her so vividly she could scarcely have been abso- spect. He would be an honest en- much of a surprise for they have dictates an extraordinary story to her- that she felt that word by word, lutely recognized from any descrip- emy or an honest friend, and if long figured that the young vanother papers he entrusts to her, he

The next morning when she starts to the bank to place her precious documents in a safe-deposit box as instructed, she is attacked by ruffians and saves her bag only because she had strapped it to her wrist, and by the timely intervention of a stranger. She safely deposits her papers and then, glancing through the newspapers, sees a short account of the discovery of a dead man in Lombertson Square-and a two-line notice of Colonel Dessiter's want, Mergen, and a strong bodyguard mysteriously conducts her to her home and sees that she is locked safely in her room for the night.

INSTALMENT IX.

"That is all outside my province," the young man assured her. "There is no institution in the world today which has not its secret service in one form or another. Naturally there is one attached to my political party, but it is only by the merest chance that I happened to know anything about their present activities. As I do, however," he went on, twisting his fingers nervously, "may I give you a word of advice?"

"It certainly seems to me," Miss Brown declared ingenuously, "that I shall need advice from some one or other soon."

"You have accomplished your mission, and you have no doubt-I hope you have—been well paid for it. Let it go at that. If those people want to make use of you again, don't let them. Our own people are pretty clever or they wouldn't have known all about you, but they are also, I am afraid, terribly unscrupulous, and though we seem to be lliving in law-abiding times, the whole world is bristling underneath. Keep out of it all, Miss Brown. Stick to your typing, and mind you this is very serious advice, put a seal upon your lips-forget."

He rose to his feet. "Are you going?"

"I am afraid I must ask you to excuse me," he regretted. "I am due down at the house of commons in ten minutes, and one of the first duties of a secretary, you know, is punctuality. Will you remember my advice, Miss Brown?"

'I will try," she promised. "And those dancing lessons?" She shook her head. "Nevertheless," he threatened, a somewhat persistent person.' He took his leave gracefully, with even a touch of wistfulness in his things. In the lounge, beyond the little crowd of dancers, she caught a glimpse of Frances' pale profile. Mr. Frankland, redder than ever, obviously eloquent, was leaning forward from a chair by her side engaged in earnest conversation.

Miss Brown Remembers

Miss Brown remained demurely at the table to all appearance an interested spectator of the dancing and the general merriment. As a matter of fact, her recent conversation had carried her back to a very different world. She felt sudden shivering revulsion to the gayety by which she was surrounded, the clamorous music, the hubbub of conversation, the continual popping of corks. Against her will

STOMACH PAINS?

Get rid of them Permanently with "Fruit-a-tives."

"Fruit-a-tives" will rid you of gas, flatulence, or pain after eating, and make life worth living again. Mrs. Annie Glover, Ottawa, writes:

"A sufferer from indigestion, constipation, dreadful stomach pains, I tried 'Fruit-a-tives'. Soon these ills were a thing of the past."

"Fruit-a-tives" acts naturally on the system. Gently and quickly it strengthens the whole digestive tract. It awakens liver, bowels and kidneys, soothes the stomach. Get a 25c or 50c box at your druggist's today. End digestive troubles without being overheard."

returned, and suffered herself to friend, and who he is." be led to a recess of the room in "Not before they came and ask-which were several easy-chairs. ed us to dance," Miss Brown re-that you were with Colonel Des- young man sighed.

person whose sole weapons were little more than ordinarily incom- were."

dance, please? Then we might talk after a brief pause, during which ter. She had schooled herself not to trust to appearances, but if ever a young man looked honest, this one did. She rose hesitatingly to her feet, and from that moment his undoubted skill and the music credibly difficult. You do not have the structure of the st the music stopped she was breath- your companions of this evening less. She glanced toward her are? Do you know the name of the table, realized that Frances had not man who sits now with your

She waited until they were both en- plied hastily, a little flush of color sconced and then faced him again mounting to her cheeks. "I way up the lightweight ladder and squarely.

| feel that it was indiscreet that Jimmy McLarnin probably in the "Now tell me," she insisted, "what we should have allowed them to welterweight climb now, Vancou-scribed from memory scene after to describe her. of secret history. She forgot en- that," she begged. tirely during that very brief lapse fear that you are going to find me that she was Miss Brown, the modest little typist of Shepherd's Mar- He hesitated.

"Will you dance with me, please?" he begged.

afraid, yet with her new-born sus- ing to any accepted standards. picion of strangers, when she found words, was uncompromising in her

"Thank you very much," she said. content to wait for my friend."

He made no movement to depart. His fingers were twitching. He leaned lower over the table. "You need not mind dancing with.

me," he confided. "I am a professional dancer here, and I am paid to dance with ladies who have no partner, but it is not only that-I wish to speak to you.'

want to buy or steal from me?"

ful choice of words and a slight, un- she would have liked to ask, notthat he must be a foreigner.

recognizable accent, she realized withstanding her conviction as to George Lucas vs. John Kaspar, in "What I should more naturally mained, therefore, silent and un- Stewart is sought, came up before wish," he told her, "would be to responsive, and she could see that Judge F. McB. Young this afterhelp you from those who desire to he was disappointed. buy or steal your trust. Will you "It was chance," he continued, November 19.

scene, page after page of that epic "You must tell me how you know is to say-attain any real power ket. Her feet were planted in a "I would rather not answer your farewell smile. Miss Brown sat greater and more terrible world, the question definitely. Will you let me alone and wondered about many atmosphere she breathed seemed tell you this? Colonel Dessiter has spiced with danger and to savor of always been the friend of my famlife and death. And then it all ily. I have had a message from him faded away like a flash. She look- lately. . I know, you see, that you ed up with a little start, suddenly have come into this great struggle. much to say to you."

Another Mystery

She stole a glance at him. He was very big and, but for the re-For a moment, too surprised to mains of his military training and answer, she found herself looking a probably inherited ease of bear-at him speechless. He was tall, thin, ing, would have been a little Canadians in very pale, with a sad and thought- clumsy. His eyes were as brown as ful face which in those few seconds hers were blue, his features irseemed somehow familiar to her. regular, his hair stubborn. He He was not a person of whom it was distinctly pleasant to look at seemed possible to be for a moment, without being handsome accord-"I am a Russian," he announced.

She drew a liltte away. "And therefore an exile and a self-consciousness. She had a feel- gether here November 8. Lord ing that he was sensitive, and Byng will preside and the 35 Victhat her slight movement of re- toria Cross men here for the Britvulsion had hurt him.

"I am like many other of my function. "engaged in a struggle to earn a living. At night I dance here; in the daytime I serve at a restaur-"You, too!" she exclaimed curi- ant. The hours which are my own ously. "What do you wish to speak I devote to another cause. It was about? Is there something you that cause which once brought me no boats being in with catches. into touch with Colonel Dessiter." He flushed a little. From his care- There were so many questions page by page, she could have tran- tion, even if there had been any one ever the Communist Party—the Elks respectable section of them, that in this country it will be his chief who leads. But the other man-I could find, Miss Brown, no good work to say of him."

She looked him in the face. "Tell me your name please," she

"My name is Paul," he told her. "We who have lost our country no further right aware that a man was standing by and there is something I want very names. You can call me Paul, or Mr. Paul, if you like."

(To Be Continued Tomorrow)

England Will

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Six hundred bitter enemy of those who have members of the Canadian expedi-I do not dance often. I am quite destroyed my country," he went tionary forces living in England propose to commemorate the sign She flushed with a momentary ing of the armistice by dining toish Legion dinner will attend the

NO HALIBUT TODAY

There was no halibut sale at the local fish exchange this morning, his honesty, she dared not. She re- which a partnership accounting at noon and was adjourned until siter for several hours last eve- "She is my dearest friend," Miss course, whether or not the title had a chance of outpointing Morcouver Irishman was too good for the lightweight king. Townsend and McLarnin both seem to have a Grotto Entry Withdrawn; Play bright pugilistic future in store and it is to be hoped that the newer Townsend is as well

Ontario teams and to be known Play commences on November as the Canadian Professional Hoc- 19 and the schedule will be issued key League, have been completed, shortly. Branford, Galt and Kitchener are sure starters, while it is probable that Stratford will have a team in the new circuit. Oshawa is BASKETBALI building a new rink and is anxious to be included in the loop. While Guelph is talking of installing artificial ice. It is proposed to start the season early in December and the schedule will call for approximately 30 games, 15 at home and an equal number abroad. number of amateur players have signified their intention of signing with clubs in the new circuit as they realize the chances of playing pro hockey in the higher Hockey League will also turn some damage being estimated at $50,000. Donaldson; A. B. Moore; w of its players into the new circuit for seasoning.

Had Decisive Margin Over Canadian Legion in Billiards Last Evening

the Billiard League last night when ceeded by train to Smithers on of- Doncette; W. Harold, 7; the tobacconists scored another ficial business. big win, defeating Canadian Legion by an aggregate score of 1204 Mr. and Mrs. Alex Stewart of D. to 1047. Grotto won three of the Anyox, who have been on a two Patrick reads five games and the high break of weeks' trip to Vancouver, are pasthe evening was a run of 34 made sengers returning to the smelter by Jimmy Andrews.

Individual scores were as follows: this afternoon. J. Andrews (Grotto), 250; F. G. Pyle (Canadian Legion, 202.

Tinker, 250. follows:

Canadian Legion

(Courtesy S. D. Johnston Co.)

Bayview, 2, 3.

Big Missouri, 73, 75. Cork Province, 61/4, 61/2. Cotton Belt, 15, Nil. Dunwell, Nil. 12. Duthie Mines, 40, 44. George Copper, 2.40, 2.50. Golconda, 83, 85. Grandview, 25, 28, Independence, 5, 51/2. Inter. Coal & Coke, 32, 34. Kootenay Florence, 9, 10. Kootenay King, 14, 141/2. L. & L., 1, Nil. Lucky Jim, 9, 10. Mohawk, 2, 21/2. Morton Woolsey, 21/2, 3, Marmot River Gold, Nil, 21/2. Marmot Metals, Nil, 21/2. National Silver, 11, 12. Noble Five, 45, 47. Oregon Copper, 15, 16. Pend Oreille, Nil. 2.80. Premier, 1.70, 1.71. Porter-Idaho, 22, 25. Reeves Macdonald, 1.10, 1.12, Rufus-Argenta, 10, 11. Ruth-Hope, 26, 28. Silver Crest, 5, 61/2. Silverado, 30. 36. Snowflake, 15 %, Nil. Sunloch, Nil 1.05 Topley Richfield, 6, 7. Whitewater, 26, 30. Woodbine, 21/2, 3. Bluebird, 6, Nil.

A. P. Consolidated, 2.47, 2.48. Calmont, 1.45, 1.48. Dalhousie, 1.80, 1.85. Devenish, Nil, 25. Fabyan Pete. 81/2. 9. Home, 12.50, 12.65. Freehold, 90, 93. Hargal, 95, 1.00. Sterling Pacific, 1.06, 1.08. United, 81, 85. Mercury, 70, 75.

League basketball opened last night in the Exhib you know about me and why you come to the table, but you must ver seems to have produced two spoke to me as you did?"

"I know that you are Miss Edith sake. She lives in the country and well-weight that the believe me, it was for my friend's potential boxing champs and it would not be surprising if one or would not be surprising if one or both of them have not captured a both of the captured a both of them have not captured a both of the captured a both Brown," he said. "a stenographer she is very lonely."

living in Shepherds Market, and "She is very beautiful," the belt before the coming winter's was one senior league game which the Players Club campaign is over depending, of 20 to 19 from the Elks and two intermediate matche Brown continued. "It is for her holders will come down off their Naval Reserve winning one from the Canadian Na opens and a man, evidently a house behind the screen and the dying servant, confronts her and, as he man confiding to her brain and She was frankly puzzled. It sake that we came here this eve- poles. To many, Townsend's great Railway by 26 to 24, while the High School beat Barrier when this man asked her to showing last Friday night when catches sight of her portable type- fingers the achievement of his life. seemed to her that she had ning. When this man asked her to showing last Friday night when writer case, asks her whether she will she heard the dry phrases recount- stumbled into a world in which dance she consented. Then the he was robbed of a decision over 37 to 20 in the other. Quite a large crowd witness come in and take some dictation, and site heard the dry phrases recounts and sat down at my Tod Morgan, the junior light- games in which they took considerable interest.

The senior game was a very close affair, first on and then the other being

Will Start on November 19

Grotto Ladies have withdrawn despite the fact that the handled as Jimmy has been these from the ladies' section of the fielded only two of its regular past few years.

Fraternal Whist League, leaving ers, the rest being junion Definite plans for a minor pro hockey league to be composed of Ladies, Lief Erikson Ladies, Orange game the score was also din Ladies A and Orange Ladies B.

Tuesday, Nov. 5-Navy vs. C. N. R, High School vs. Bankers, Elks vs. Players Club.

FIRE AT TORONTO

TORONTO, Nov. 6:-C.N.R. Ice Players' Club-W. Plome leagues will be greater if they House here was completely de- H. Heilbroner; Alex Mitchel gain experience. The International stroyed by fire last night, the J. Smith, 4; Tom Kelsey

Local Items

B. F. Messner, well known High Smithers mining man, arrived in Walter Johnson, 11; A. the city on the Prince Rupert this R. Irvine, 2; Nakamoto, 8;1 Vancouver and proceeded to the interior by train. ds J. W. Smith, provincial govern- Boulter; R. Nelson, ment auctioneer, arrived in the total, 26. city on the Prince Rupert this af- | C.N.R.-A. Skattebol, 2; F Grotto was still going strong in ternoon from Stewart and pro- eron, 8; J. Comadina, 7; I

town aboard the Prince Rupert

Mrs. S. G. Lawrence of Stewart W. J. Nelson, 250; A. Murray, 157. is a passenger aboard the Prince Patrick was re-elected presi George Waugh, 245; Marcus An- Rupert this afternoon returning the Coast Hockey League at north after a trip to Vancouver in | nual meeting. The schell . Hillman, 250; J. W. Scott, 188. charge of an injured miner who games opens November I M. M. McLachlan, 209; G. P. Was taken south for treatment.

Team standings to date are as Jack Hartley, assistant port steward for Canadian National Av. Steamships at Vancouver, arrived 5987 1197 in the city from the south on the 5435 1087 Prince Rupert this afternoon, be-4 4325 1081 ing here on business in connection with the steamer Canadian Seigneur which has been tied up in the local dry dock. He is accompanied north by Mrs. Hartley who will make the round trip to Anyox and Stewart.

Richard Knox, assistant superintendent engineer, Canadian National Steamships, arrived in the city on the Prince Rupert this afternoon from Vancouver, being here in connection with the overhaul of the steamer Canadian Seigneur, which has been laid up in the local dry dock.

Haysport-Light wind, rain, 38. Port Simpson-Light southeast wind, rain, 36. Terrace-Light snow, calm, 31. Rosswood-Light snow, calm, 30. Aiyansh-Cloudy, calm, 28. Alice Arm-Cloudy, calm, 31. Atlin-Cloudy, strong wind, 23. Dawson-Cloudy, calm, 10.

MADE TO ORDER

Cutting, Workmanship and Style All Guaranteed

SUITS STEAM CLEANED AND PRESSED

We Deliver to Any Part of the

Phone 649

during the play. To cap the Tom Kelsey scored on a shot just as the whistle break a 19-all tie. Both played well, with the Player possibly putting up a better ing than might have been ed. R. B. Skinner was referred. R. B. Skinner was refer The intermediate league between Naval Reserve and R. was also close and well;

High School played pretty bination to win the most of victory of the evening. The ers found it difficult to get in spite of the fact that the sess this winter the star m Harold Macdonald-who lan was with the High School. Menzies was referee.

Oke Jackson was scorekee the evening and Johnson timekeeper. Details of scoring were ash

Senior League Elks-W. Lambie, 6; Geom chell, 5; Mike Budinich, 1 Mitchell, 5; Joe Gosse, 1; Moore: total, 19.

Intermediate

R.C.N.V.R .- E. Dingwall,

VANCOUVER, Nov.

Victoria playing here. Daily News "Classified" tising brings results.

> Fresh Pasteurized Mill Cream Daily.

EARLY DELIVER Throughout the City Telephone 657.

Boat Builde Marine Ways SEAL COVE

take you out of under roof where rain not trouble; build boats size or kind at surpris Halibut, Pleasur

Trolling Boats For Sale I generally have a suit any requirements. ing spaces for boats' quarters. Agencies any gine required. Repairs Why pay more whe work can be done for le better accomodation? PHONE GREEN