Vessels Are Being Built by Cammel Laird at Birkenhead, England, Sir Henry Thornton Tells Committee of House of Commons

OTTAWA, May 3.—Three new oil-burning ships will be put on the Pacific coastwise service, Sir Henry Thornton told the select standing committee of railways and shipping on Thursday, when the committee approved the estimates of the railway.

These vessels are being built by Cammel-Laird & Co., at Birkenhead, England, and will cost $5,100,000. They will be 384 feet long, 57 feet wide, and carry 359 first-class and 70 third-class passengers. They will have a speed of 22.5 knots.

The committee was examining the budget of the National system which seeks for all the services the sum of $63,300,645 for the current year. This is an increase of more than $16,000,000 over the requirement for last year.
