Doric Off To Seattle; Keeping Qualities of Salmon to Be Studied at Local Station; Halibut Landings Holding Up Well

In tow of the Pacific Salvage Co.'s power tug Salvage Princess, the halibut schooner Doric, which was wrecked some weeks ago on Kinahan Island, at the mouth of Prince Rupert Harbor, and subsequently underwent overhaul below the water line at the local drydock, left Prince Rupert this morning for Seattle, where her reconditioning will be completed. The former owners of the vessel, to whom the boat will be pletion of repairs, speak highly of the excellent job that was done on the vessel at Prince Rupert. After delivering the Doric to Seattle, the Salvage Princess will proceed to the West Coast of Vancouver Island where she will engage in pilchard packing, not returning to Prince Rupert until fall.
