OCEAN TROUGH IS DISCOVERED

WASHINGTON, July 16 .- Discovery of a vast ocean trough near Japan, more than five miles deep in one place and ranking as the sixth greatest submarine depth known to man, is welcomed by scientists as shedding increased light on the earthquake history of the region.

Centres of earthquake activity usually are found in the neighborhood of ocean deeps. Fissures generally indicate weaknesses in the earth's crust that will give way under conditions of stress and

The trough was found by scienlists aboard the Carnegie, nonmagnetic ship of the Carnegic Instiution of Washington, as they were cruising due north from MILLION Suam to Yokohama, Japan. It measured 28,380 feet in depth for a distance of nine miles.

Evidence Against Mary C. Fischer Heard Yesterday by Admiralty

VICTORIA, July 16.—Hearing of the charge of being illegally in Canadian waters opened Monday afternoon against the American fishing boat Mary C. Fischer, Captain L. Sheppard, Mr. Justrying the case.

Captain Sheppard testified that he went aboard the Fischer when captain and engineer of the boat were in their berths and the captain gave no reasonable excuse why the vessel was anchored. The engine was working satisfactorily and the weather was clear. There were 400 pounds of fish aboard when the seizure was made.

Sheppard declared the captain of the Fischer at the time of the seizure told him he believed he was outside the three-mile limit. Captain Fillion of the Fischer is on the stand today.

LEEDS, England, July 16. — England won the third cricket test match today from South Africa by five wickets.

South Africa, aided by Owen Smith's 129 this afternoon surprised the English players, who seemingly had a safe margin. At the unch interval England had lost two of her best batsmen and was still 165 behind the touring opponents, but the middle section of the team played fine cricket.

The scores for the game were: South Africa, 236 and 275; aggregate 511. England, 328 and 186 for five wickets; aggregate, 514.

When play ceased last night the visitors were only 24 runs ahead with three wickets to fall and England had yet to play the second innings.
