SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNICS WERE MUCH ENJOYED

Presbyterian and Baptist Young People Play Games on Beach At Digby Island.

Yesterday afternoon the Presbyterian and Baptist Sunday Schools held their annual outing to Digby Island where the children played upon the beach until late in the evening. The tide was out during the whole afternoon and only started to stop the fun on the beach about half past nine which was indeed very fortunate for those who had the arranging of games. It would hardly have been possible to get a nicer day as far as sunshine is concerned and the parents and guests leisurely strolled around watching the young folks enjoying themselves. There were many boats running back and forth carrying the picnickers and it was not until nearly eight o'clock that the tiny tots thought of returning home.

The Presbyterians.

The Presbyterians stayed on the beach close to the float, facing the hospital. Here in the afternoon races were held and the winners suitably rewarded for their efforts. Messrs. Fuller and Carmichael were in charge of the sports and with untiring efforts always kept things going. In the evening "duck on the rock" was indulged in, followed by playing ball. The most exciting game, however, was "run sheep, run," in which two teams were picked under Captains Mitchell and Ryan. The culmination of the excitement was reached however when the captain for one of the teams had just returned to give the directions when all his followers burst in and pronounced themselves home. The opponents had not yet started to look, but the captain in order to deceive the searchers had taken a devious route and in the long delay his team rushed for home thinking that it was deserted.

One little girl fell into the water in the afternoon and apart from the wetting and brief discomfiture was little the worse of her cold dip.

Baptists.

The Baptist Sunday School held their picnic on the grounds in front of the doctor's house looking out on Rupert harbor. It was a very choice spot and the broad expanse of beach gave ample opportunity for playing all kinds of games. Over one hundred enjoyed the outing which is the record attendance for any Baptist Sunday School picnic held so far in the city. Messrs. Linzey and Duff were in charge of the sports and very keen competition was displayed by the youngsters. In the ball games the Hamblin brothers did much to keep the excitement alive. It was very reluctantly that the scattered picnickers gathered to board the first boat for home. There were a few private boats over and these stayed after the departure of the main party.

FOOTBALL LEAGUE IS BEING PLANNED

Meeting Last Night Decides to Have Practice Game on Next Wednesday.

In St. Andrew's Hall last evening a few of the football fans gathered to make arrangements for the formation of a city league. There were very few present, which does not speak very well for the players and fans who turn out to the games and practises. However, the provisional business of forming the league was adjusted and it is thought that at least three teams will enter for the championship during the season. On Wednesday evening there will be a game between the St. Andrew's and the Sons of England. Following this the committees in charge will call a meeting of all the players so that some definite plans can be drawn up.

ENID BENNETT AS A SMALL TOWN ACTRESS

Tale of Love and Adventure in Which the Heroine Eventually Wins Out.

Love and adventure in which a small town actress tries to fool the sheriff is the theme of the movie show tonight at the Westholme with Enid Bennett, the famous actress as the star.

Miss Bennett takes the part of Nora who is a member of a small theatrical troupe, the effects of which are seized by the sheriff. She runs away from theatricals and finds herself acting a part on the real stage of life in which love and sorrow and joy, surprise and disappointment and final happiness come.

It is an unusual tale with a distinct western flavor.
