It will be interesting, too, that it should come out this way for neither the Athletics or Cubs have figured in a World Series for many a long year. New York Yankees and St. Louis Cardinals, last year's contenders, seem to be pretty well out of it this season. The Yanks still have a long fighting chance but the best it seems the Cards can do will be to keep out of the second division.

EDMONTON, Aug. 21: -Shortage of feed in the Edmonton district has made it necessary for winter milk prices to dairies to be made effective one month earlier than in previous years. Effective now, the price per quart of pasteurized milk is 13 cents, as against a former price of 12 cents, while the pint bottles have been increased from 7 to 8 cents.
