Miss Ethel Christy of Prince Rupert arrived on Saturday from Telkwa where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. T. P. Smith. She will spend the remainder of her vacation at the home of her parents here.

M. P. McCaffery of Prince Rupert was a visitor here at the week-end.

W. O. Fulton of Prince Rupert spent the week-end with his family at their summer home at Lakelse Lake.

Mrs. Fraser and daughter of Haysport visited at the home of Mrs. E. J. Moore during the last week.

Vergil Moore of Prince Rupert spent the week-end at his home here.

Mrs. George Little and family returned on Saturday from a holiday spent in Seattle and Spokane. Mr. Little and Dudley returned Sunday, they having motored up through the Turner Valley, and visited friends at Foremost and High River.

The annual picnic at Kalum Lake took place on Sunday and despite unpromising weather and bad roads, a fair crowd turned out. A program of sports, including several boat races, was carried out under the direction of J. McLaren.

A. H. Waddington of Prince Rupert was here at the week-end on forestry duties.

Weak After Operation

"After having an operation, I was very miserable, weak, nervous and very near unfit to work. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and tried it and believe it helped me wonderfully. I have no weak spells any more, the pains have left me and my nerves are much better. I feel safe in saying Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine has helped me wonderfully."—Mrs. Wm. H. Beechler, Box 143, Port Colborne, Ontario.

Watches

To see this display is to be convinced that the correct watch of today is not only an accurate timekeeper but it is a work of art as well.

We carry the most dependable makes—standard watches that have won reputations for accuracy and reliability—and these movements are in cases of rare beauty as modern as one's car or one's clothes.

District News

NFW HAZELTON

The provincial police announce that drastic steps are to be taken to get rid of stray dogs which have been proving a great nuisance particularly at Hazelton.

J. V. Storkey has been appointed a justice of the peace for Hazelton.

H. C. Lifton of Smithers has been spending a few days in New Hazelton recently.

Miss Ida Schultz of Topley is visiting here with Miss Jane York.

After seven years of valued service, Rev. T. D. Proctor has resigned as rector of St. Peter's Church at Hazelton effective September 29. He may go for a while to the Peace River country or accompany Mrs. Proctor to England. Mrs. Proctor is now making satisfactory recovery following a serious illness.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Sparks and daughter of Hoquiam, Wash., are visitors at Hazelton, having motored up from the south.

ALICE ARM

Mr. and Mrs. Pynn and son of Anyox are spending a holiday here and are guests at the Alice Arm hotel.

Many Alice Arm people went down to Anyox last Friday evening to attend the meeting of Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader.

In the recent entrance examinations Miss Florence Studdy of Alice Arm passed with a total of 418 marks.

There was a large attendance at an enjoyable dance which was held last Saturday evening in T. W. Falconer's hall. There were a number of visitors from Anyox present.

Ed. Ashton, who is interested in mining claims on McGrath mountain, arrived last week from Anyox.

F. H. Hoadley, for the past two years at Smithers and prior to that at Aiyansh, has been appointed teacher of the Alice Arm school for the coming term.

BURNS LAKE

Mrs. A. L. Fakeley, who has been teaching at Dundurn, Sask., for several years and who formerly resided at Hazelton, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Keefe of Southbank. She will teach at Port Essington during the coming term.

District visitors in town during the past week included Sam Marsh and Harry McLean, Houston; B. Hegerty and Tony Rosso, Nadina; W. N. Clark, Forestdale; A. H. Waddington, Prince Rupert; R. H. Moore, Port Fraser; Mrs. F. Gale, Nadina; Mrs. Alex Annan, Endako.

WILL VISIT HERE

The Earl of Derby, prominent British sportsman, will visit Canada and the United States shortly for the first time in 36 years. He plans to remain until spring to witness the running of the Kentucky Derby. His ancestors furnished the cup for the first English Derby that was later named in their honor.

T. Hougen made a trip to Fraser Lake last week with Howard Pringle.

STEWART

Owing to mining activity in that vicinity, Mosquito Creek is now a centre of transportation. A. B. Armstrong, the Crawford Transfer Co. and A. E. Young have outfits headquartered there and each have a commodious stable and quarters for their packers.

The Blackhill Mining Co. is sorting ore and sacking it for shipment.

Dalby B. Morkill has completed surveying the property of the American Creek Mining Co., consisting of 52 claims and fractions. A trail is being in and a permanent camp built.

C. C. Starr M. E. has arrived here from the south to examine and report on the Woodbine for Hugh B. McGuire.
