ST. ANDREW'S WELCOMES ITS RETURNED MEN

Entertainment at Reception Given Last Night to Five Recently Returned Members.

Last evening in the club rooms the members of St. Andrew's Society gathered for a social night in honor of some of the returned members and their wives. President Macdonald outlined the object of the gathering and how other meetings of the kind had been held to welcome home the boys. This one was to do special honor to five of the men who had returned since the last reception. The members were W. M. Brown, W. Matheson, R. Robertson, R. Wiggins, and Ben Ferguson. They were very gladly received back in the ranks of the society and especially to the new rooms which have been fixed up since they had left for overseas. The president called upon Dr. Grant, the chaplain, to give a short address.

Dr. Grant very ably expressed the feeling of all present in a concise speech of welcome. In silence he passed over those who would never return from the fields of Flanders. A tear might be shed upon their graves but that was all that could be done for those who paid the supreme sacrifice. But here were other boys back and he was especially glad to see them as many had been known to him for a long time before their departure for overseas.

Church Not Failed.

Dr. Grant in speaking of the Church said that it was wrong to say that it had failed as it had been instrumental in bringing about much good to the human race. Many Sabbath Schools and community settlements and other benevolent and educational institutions had been established by the Church during the past few years. In conclusion Dr. Grant stated that in every way possible it would be his policy to help those who had so nobly fought for their king and country.

Messrs. Brown, Ferguson and Matheson replied to the speeches, and all stated that they were just as glad to be back as the members were to see them.

Fine Program.

There was a concert and many varied were the items on the program. All the artists were greatly applauded and the whole tone of the gathering was one of gladness and good fellowship. The following contributed: W. Murray, Mrs. Jas. Lee, Mrs. W. H. Millar, Ben Ferguson, W. M. Brown (by special request, "Mary of Argyll"), Mrs. Jarvis McLeod, J. N. Sinclair and Robt. Robertson. The quartette composed of Messrs. Clapperton, Waddell, Davis and Lancaster gave two very excellent selections. The pipes, the Scottish national instrument, were heartily enjoyed when they skirted joyfully to the touch of Tom Stevens and Alex. McDonald. The jazz orchestra furnished selections throughout the whole evening.

At the close of the concert each of the returned boys present was presented with a photograph which was taken from the big scroll of welcome which will be hung in the rooms.

Delightful refreshments were served by the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary and dancing began in the main hall with a highland schottische as a head-liner. A very large number enjoyed this social evening and it was very reluctantly that the affair was brought to a close shortly after one o'clock.

PRESIDENT GETS A GOLD WATCH

Presentation to S. D. Macdonald At Social Gathering of St. Andrew's Society Last Night.

At the St. Andrew's Society gathering held in the rooms last night President S. D. Macdonald was presented with a gold Waltham watch by the members of the society who had been overseas.

J. H. Kelly made a neat speech in which he referred to the good work which the president had done and said that the watch was given as a token of appreciation. Mr. Macdonald replying said that he had done his bit in keeping the society together after the departure of the real men who had made it so successful at the beginning.
