

WILL SUPPRESS ALL GAMBLING

Mayor Reports to Police Commission and Gets Legal Advice As to Powers.

PAYING FOR DRINKS ILLEGAL AT CARL

At the meeting of the Police Commission yesterday afternoon Mayor McClymont stated that he had been instructed by the City Council by resolution to stop gambling in the city. He was reporting officially to the Police Commission before setting to work.

Commissioner Hill favored revoking any arrangement that had been made hitherto and would make no concessions whatever to anyone but was preparing to enforce the law.

On the city solicitor being asked what was considered illegal in gambling, the opinion was given that blackjack was always illegal but that there was nothing illegal about a friendly game of poker. If drinks were sold in connection with the game that was considered to be a rakeoff. They must not take chips out of the pot in order to pay for the drinks.

The question of church raffles then came up for discussion and it was decided to stop lotteries, sweepstakes, church gambling, and raffles by soldiers' associations. They could not draw any line. The mayor, seemed to crystallize the opinion of the Commission when he said: "The thing to do is to stop it all."

W. E. Williams advised that was the duty of the police to enforce the law without being instructed by the police commission.

ENID BENNETT AS NORA THE ACTRESS

Bright Comedy - Drama Shown Last Night at Westholme Will be Repeated.

It was a great comedy-drama that was shown last night at the Westholme Theatre with Enid Bennett as star. Fooling the sheriff in a country town caused much merriment. When the theatrical troupe, of which Nora is a member, is seized, she slaps the sheriff's face and then runs away.

The plot and counter plot which follow are extremely entertaining and the general western flavor is very pleasing.

There were also Christie comedies so that it may be said to have been an all comedy program. It will be repeated tonight.

Hans Knott was a passenger on the Grand Trunk boat last evening for San Francisco. He does not expect to return to this city.

Sport

Many of the outlying points are beginning to show an interest in this city as trying to arrange for games with the local baseball team. Some of this city's old timers who are now in Ocean Falls have been trying to arrange a match between a team from the paper plant and the local nine.

Yesterday afternoon a number of the boys and girls gathered at the Market Place where they enjoyed a friendly game of baseball. The girls put up a very good brand of ball and kept the boys hustling to keep up with them. The young ladies of this city a nearly all great ball fans and turn out faithfully to all the games and are good rooters. For the junior games one of them usually keeps score.

It has already been rumored about town that there will be a game of baseball for the junior league on the first of September if all goes ahead as is expected. The teams playing will likely be the Hungry Nine and the Colts. Hopes had been entertained that it might be the Drydocks but this team has been broken up for the summer holidays and it is not likely that it can be got together again.

At the professional hockey match in Vancouver last Saturday it was expected that a spirited event would take place. It had been advertised and the names of the contestants published from time to time but only one showed up, namely, Lee Cowans the sensational colored runner. However he gave an exhibition sprint, travelling eighty yards in 8.4-5 seconds.

Peil Neer of Portland will represent the Pacific North West in the national junior tennis championship in New York next month. He won this right by defeating Jack Wright of Spokane in five sets.

E. F. Duby, until recently connected with the big sawmill at Prince Rupert as manager, spent June 26th in Vancouver on business, leaving next day for Victoria, says the Pacific Coast Lumberman. Mr. and Mrs. Duby have been enjoying a delightful holiday of some weeks with Washington and Oregon friends, and are at present guests of Tacoma citizens. Their vacation will soon terminate, however, as Mr. Duby is about to accept one of several good offers made him to take charge of a big plant across the line.
