GRAND MASTER OF ODDFELLOWS

E. G. Cavalsky of Nanaimo Pays Official Visit; Banquet and Dance Enjoyed

E. G. Cavalsky of Nanaimo, grand master of the Oddfellows' Lodge of British Columbia, paid an official visit to the local lodge last night, the lodge formalities being followed by a banquet and dance which was attended by many members of the order as well as by members of the sister Rebekah Lodge.

Murdo MacArthur, noble grand of the local Oddfellows' Lodge, was toastmaster. The blessing was pronounced by J. Blackhall, chaplain, and the toast to the King was observed in the usual manner.

James Irvine proposed the toast to the grand lodge, which was responded to by Grand Master Cavalsky, who made the address of the evening. The toast to the Rebekah Lodge was proposed by S. M. Newton, Mrs. T. H. Priest, Rebekah noble grand, responding. J. W. McKinley offered the toast to the visitors, to which R. J. Keron of Alberta responded.

Musical numbers on the program included vocal solos by C. G. Minns, accompanied by the Oddfellows' orchestra, solo by Ben Ferguson, and comic songs by A. R. Phillips, accompanied by S. L. Peachy.

Following the banquet dancing was indulged in, music being furnished by the Oddfellows' orchestra. The festivities kept up until 1 a.m., J. E. Boddie being master of ceremonies. The committee in charge consisted of H. Dyer, J. E. Jack, A. McArthur, S. N. Boyle and J. Blackhall.

Final Settlement at Hague is Announced

Germany Agrees To Compromise Plan on Young Settlement of Reparations and Withdrawal of Troops Arranged

THE HAGUE, Aug. 29.—Creditor powers and Germany reached an agreement late this evening on the Young reparations plan and a full session of all powers represented at the conference will be held Friday to conclude officially the business for which they met three weeks ago.

After nearly four weeks of labor the conference today reached a decision on the Rhineland evacuation, which, it was announced, was dependent on the agreement on the Young plan. Tentative plans show that evacuation must begin immediately and that it must be terminated by the Belgians and British and in the second French zone within three months after the adoption of the Young plan and that the last zone bridgehead at Mainz must be cleared of foreign troops before the end of June, 1930.

THE HAGUE, Aug. 29.—Early today the German representatives decline to participate in the compromise of France, Italy, Japan and Belgium with Great Britain to secure British adherence to the Young plan, Foreign Minister Stresemann reiterated that Germany was unable to make the further concessions demanded.

FAREWELL TO REV. C. J. LEE

A delightful farewell party was given on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Perry, Summit Apartments, in honor of the Rev. C. J. Lee. Mr. Lee arrived from the Old Country about two months ago, and following his ordination at St. Andrew's Pro-Cathedral recently, leaves on Friday afternoon to take charge of the church at Stewart.

The friends who were present on this occasion expressed their esteem and good wishes in the presentation of a gold and silver cigarette case. The address, accompanying the gift, was made by the Rev. J. B. Gibson, in his characteristic sincere and humorous manner, and was suitably responded to by Mr. Lee, who expressed his regret at having to leave a community where his brief stay had acquainted him with so many worthy friends as he had found in Prince Rupert.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Chris Perry, Rev. C. J. Lee, Rev. J. B. Gibson and Miss Gibson, J. Annal, W. N. Appleyard, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Aspinall, Mrs. B. E. Cosmon, Mrs. F. A. What the conference recommended was the appointment of a committee of representatives of Great Britain and the dominions.

GRAIN HOARDED AT THE LAKES

Eighty-Seven Per Cent of the Storage There is Taken By Old Crop

VANCOUVER, Aug. 29.—Pacific coast grain ports may reap a marked benefit because of the congestion of grain at eastern ports if Europe comes into the market. New crop grain is commencing to move heavily and at the present time 87 per cent of the storage at the head of the lakes is taken by 58,000,000 bushels of old crop grain.

Daily shipments of the prairie new crop to the elevators now totals a million bushels and is increasing and the railway companies are in a quandary how to handle the shipments.

British Bring Back Order in Palestine Treating Jews and Arabs Alike: the Turkish Flag

LONDON, Aug. 29.—Government reports from Jerusalem today showed that all was quiet in Palestine, where the British troops were stationed. In Jerusalem some of the Jewish shops reopened, the tension being greatly relieved as a result of British repressive measures, which clamped the authority on Jew and Arab alike.

Reports that the Arabs in the Nablaus, Central Palestine, had declared their independence from Great Britain, whose administration over Palestine is authorized under a mandate from the League of Nations, were said to have raised the Turkish flag, caused some concern.
