

TERRACE BOARD OF TRADE MEETS

Holds Smoker and Does Much Business; Marintette is Appointed Treasurer

TERRACE, April 12.—The quarterly meeting of the Terrace Board of Trade held on Tuesday evening in the Terrace theatre took the form of a smoker and social evening, although much business relative to the interests of the district was outlined and discussed.

H. Halliwell gave a comprehensive report of the work of the council during the past three months, which shows that body is alive to the needs of the district and doing its utmost to press those needs before the proper authorities.

E. W. Marintette was elected treasurer of the board to fill the vacancy left when A. H. Barker moved away.

The chief matter under discussion was the problem of parking space at Lakelse Lake. Last year parking space at this end of the lake was much overtaxed and with the prospect of many more cars this year it is considered by the board an urgent matter. It was left with the public works committee to meet the new engineer and press for this work.

F. Nash took exception to the members of the board, Prince Rupert newspapers and people generally referring to the district along the line of the C.N.R. as northern B. C., whereas in reality it was very centrally located. He suggested that all should try to remedy this error, as it was undoubtedly a detriment in publicity and advertising.

The proposition of F. C. Bishop regarding skaring the proceeds of the picture show "The Foreign Legion" being shown next Monday and Tuesday was accepted and R. W. Riley and Geo. Dover were appointed a committee to co-operate with Mr. Bishop in working out details regarding the sale of tickets.

Short talks were made by J. Hepburn and R. Corlett and J. K. Gordon told some humorous stories with good effect.

A. C. Smail delighted the audience with a number of piano solos.

Another of Hazelton's Old Timers Died in the Hospital After a Few Weeks Illness

HAZELTON, April 12.—With the "Union Jack" covering the casket, the remains of the late Peter Enoch were carried to their last resting place in the beautiful cemetery facing the majestic mountain, Rocher de Boule, at Hazelton, on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Peter Enoch was a native of Sweden, where he was born in the year 1863. In his early days he led a sea-faring life.

In 1885 he came to British Columbia and arrived and prospected in the Kootenays and in Northern British Columbia in subsequent years.

During the "Great War" Enoch enlisted in the Pioneer Battalion, and served for four years. At the end of the war he returned to Hazelton and acted as ferryman for the ferry across the Skeena.

A very impressive service was conducted by Rev. T. H. Wright, E.A., in the United Church which was filled to capacity with old-timers and other friends. Pallbearers were six members of the Canadian Legion, Sam Kincaid, W. Larmour, Fred Roth, James Mailen, James Turnbull and Fred McNabb.

Floral wreaths were given by Mrs. C. V. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Myros, Mr. and Mrs. John Newick, Jas. Turnbull, Mr. and Mrs. Winsby, Peter Neilson, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Falconer, Mrs. Seely, Mr. and Mrs. Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Grant, E. Peterson, Hugh McKay, R. Cusick, Pete Corrigan, H. Guest and J. A. Hodder. All speak of Peter's kindly disposition and of his patriotism. He will be greatly missed, especially by those using the ferry across the Skeena.

Better Co-Operation Suggested Between Two Places for Marketing Purposes

TERRACE, April 12.—Better marketing co-operation was the theme of a talk given by A. C. Smail of Prince Rupert at the meeting of the Board of Trade here this week. He mentioned the present lack of such co-operation which would enable the farmers to compete with produce coming in from the south. He suggested that the Boards of Trade of the two places should get together and try to improve matters.
