Unwieldy Craft of B. C. Packers Delivered Safely to Pontoons Here

Another salvage feat was successfully completed today by the local branch of the Pacific Salvage Co. when it delivered the B. C. Packers cold storage scow safely into dry dock just before noon. Over two weeks ago the scow, valued at $15,000, got away from the power tug Salvage Princess in the middle of Hecate Straits when Capt. Frank Tyler decided to rescue two men from the scow which was left adrift in the storm. A few days later the scow was picked up by Capt. George Place with his trolling boat Just It and taken to Stephens Island where it was beached. Yesterday afternoon on a high tide the unwieldy craft was refloated from Stephens Island and arrived in the harbor about 11:30 this morning in tow of the power tugs Salvage Princess, Red Boy partially submerged, only her up- DEATH OF SIX-YEARper storey being above the surface of the water.
