

Man in the Moon

It's a great day for electricity. People seem to want everything charged.

The tooth is talking. Let it talk. Then to the dentist I will walk.

The tooth is talking— Hurry away. Have it seen to Now, today.

The tooth is talking. Out it comes. No room there for Talking bums.

Yesterday the Senate did not sit. Today the Senate is not sitting. Tomorrow the Senate will not sit. Thus Ottawa from day to day records the feverish activities of the elder statesmen.

The Senate is sitting. Just think of it. The old men are active.

Wouldn't that fact just about make any reasonable man throw a fit.

One of the things to look forward to here is the sun-back dress. It shows the spine of the wearer from one end to the other.

The sun-back dress is all the rage. It takes us back to an early age. When Adam and Eve, all unware and unadorned, took sun and air.

It would never do for some of the young men to wear a dress of the sun-back variety. In order to do so it is necessary to have a spine.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

April 11, 1919

Acting Mayor D. C. McRae has wired an invitation to Lieut. Col. C. W. Beck V.C. to return to the coast with his regiment via Prince Rupert instead of going straight to Vancouver.

Improvements to be made at the Salt Lake this year by the Prince Rupert Swimming Club will include the putting in of a dam with a gate.

The school board last night decided to give a general increase in salary to local teachers.
