HAPPY FAREWELLS AS BOYS LEFT FOR SOUTH

There was a very happy parting scene at the Prince Rupert on Sunday evening. Besides the local people who were going away the Wallace's baseball team returned to the south and great was the send-off by the home club. There were three cheers from the boat which were loudly responded to from the shore. They jollied each other about the merits of their playing and were all in jubilant spirits over the friendly matches held here. "There's a long, long trail a' winding," and "Hail, Hail the gang's all here," were included on their song program. Far out into the bay the happy shouts of the boys were heard as the boat gradually faded into the mists of the outer harbor.
