POWER TONIGHT AT WESTHOLME

Fine Picture Has Comedy and Drama and Is Genuine Entertainment

Delightfully human, William Boyd's new Pathe star vehicle "Power," is one of those screen stories that motion picture theatre goers of every class so heartily enjoy. Having an unusual background and with a plot that is so well told that explanatory titles are needless, this is one of the most entertaining productions in which Mr. Boyd and Alan Hale have been teamed. It has thrills and laughs aplenty, and these are elements that go for success in screen presentation. Produced by experts under competent supervision, and the characters portrayed with the finest results by a famous star and notable supporting players, "Power" is genuine entertainment and should score powerfully.

It was produced by Ralph Block, who was the associate producer of "Skyscraper" in which William Boyd and Alan Hale scored so decisively. Mr. Block also produced "Let 'Er Go, Gallagher!" and "The Blue Danube."

It was directed by Howard Higgins, who also directed "Skyscraper." Mr. Higgin knows his art thoroughly and his genius is admirably displayed in his latest directorial effort.

SERVICE FOR FISHERMEN

At the Metropole Hall last evening there was a special service for fishermen prior to their sailing for the halibut banks this week. Rev. John Hanson officiated and preached an appropriate sermon, taking as his text the story of the catching of the fish in Sea of Galilee, when by obeying the orders of the Master they caught so much that they could not take it all in.

There was a special musical program as follows:

Prelude—Mrs. Hanson.
Piano solo—Miss McKinley.
Songs by choir.
Reading by Mrs. Dyrdahl.
Reading by I. Fines.
Song—Men's quartette.
Duet—Messrs. Finess and Petersen.

Lunch was served by the ladies.

NEW PASTOR MAKES GOOD IMPRESSION

Rev. Ivan Jones Conducted Opening Services in First Presbyterian Church Yesterday

Rev. Ivan Jones, young Welshman, made a good impression at his opening services yesterday in First Presbyterian Church, where he will supply for the next few weeks. He was heard at both morning and evening services and there were large congregations in each case.

At evening service Alex Clapperton sang "By Jesus' Grave" as a solo, and the choir, under the leadership of John E. Davy, sang the anthem, "Son of My Soul."

HILARIOUS COMEDY AT THE CAPITOL THEATRE

It's a Panic—Steamboat Bill Jr. With Buster Keaton and Ernest Torrence

Ha! Ha! Ha! Ho! Ho! Ho! ad nfinitum.

That's a fair summing up of Buster Keaton's latest laugh riot, "Steamboat Bill, Jr." which opens tonight at the Capitol Theatre for a two-night run.

Is 100 Per Cent Picture

Easily Keaton's funniest and without a doubt one of the year's biggest pictures, either comedy or dramatic, the feature is, first of all, 100 per cent entertainment.

"Steamboat Bill Jr." although obviously made for laughing purposes only, has the added merit of providing audiences with plenty of thrills, sustained suspence until the sensational climax, and a delightful love story, a neglected virtue in many comedies.

The comedy starts out with a bang. Keaton, who has been away to a polite boarding school since childhood, returns to a he-man river town just in time to get in on a bitter feud between his dad and a rival steamboat owner. Not having seen his boy for many years, old Bill expects to greet a six-foot plus, two fisted specimen like himself, but instead, a collegiate garbed, ukulele-toting sap appears on the scene. Then the fun begins!

Don't miss "Steamboat Bill Jr.,, It's really funny. Bring the kiddies.

Vary your dinners with fish and eggs

by Mary Blake

Women often tell me that their greatest difficulty in meal planning is to get variety into the main dish. It is easy enough to build a dinner, once you have selected the meat, but it takes thought to get away from the obvious round of steaks and chops and roasts.

Why not now and then substitute fish or eggs? By combining either one with milk, you have a dish rich in food values—proteins, minerals and vitamins. There are any number of delectable ways in which these combinations may be made—omelets of all sorts, creamed eggs, souffles, creamed tuna, shrimp or lobster, scalloped oysters, salmon souffle.

You must have a dependable milk supply

In any cooking that calls for milk, I never take chances. I use nothing but Carnation Milk. I know that it is the purest of high grade milk from selected herds. I know that it is rich in cream—doubly so—for it is evaporated to double thickness. I know that I will always find it sweet and good, no matter how large the quantity I have on hand, for it is sterilized for safe-keeping.

I can count on Carnation always for notably delicious results—extra creaminess, velvety smoothness of texture, fragile delicacy of flavor. The best informed domestic scientists agree that it is not only better in results than ordinary bottled milk, but that it is particularly economical.

If you want to know what a great new field of cooking success awaits you in the use of Carnation Milk, send for free Cook Book. Address Carnation Milk Products Co., Limited, 134 Abbott Street, Vancouver, B.C.

Carnation Tuna Fish a la King

2 tbsp. butter, ½ green pepper shredded, 1 hard-cooked egg, ½ cup chopped mushrooms, 3 tbsp. flour, 1 cup Carnation Milk, 1 cup water, salt and pepper, 1½ cups tuna fish, ½ cup peas. Saute green pepper and mushrooms in butter until tender (about 10 minutes), keeping covered. Remove mushrooms and pepper and blend flour with butter; add Carnation diluted with water and cook until mixture is thickened, stirring constantly. Place flaked tuna fish, peas, egg, mushrooms and pepper in double boiler; add sauce; cook over hot water 10 minutes. Serve in patty shells or on toast points. Serves 6. Lobster or shrimp may be used in place of tuna.

Baked Eggs a la Carnation

1½ tbsp. butter, 1½ tbsp. flour, ½ tsp. salt, ¼ tsp. pepper, ½ cup Carnation Milk, ½ cup water, 4 to 6 eggs, buttered bread crumbs. Make white sauce of butter, flour, seasonings and Carnation diluted with water. Pour into shallow baking dish. Cover sauce with eggs, being careful not to break yolks. Sprinkle buttered bread crumbs over top and bake in moderately slow (325°F.) oven until eggs are firm. Garnish with parsley.

The Best of Milk

Produced in Canada

Carnation Milk is simply pure, sweet whole milk, evaporated to double creaminess. Nothing is added; nothing removed but about half the water. Try this dependable, convenient, economical milk.
