Victoria Day, Friday, is to be, as usual, suitably observed in the neighboring village of Port Simpson and, with N. Lawson as Thursday and continue on to Grover Alexander flashed an- Friday. Outstanding events will the outboard speedboat race the cup for which is now held by R. Boyd Young, as well as a cup for workboats eight horsepower and under. Altogether, it should be a big couple of days in Port Simpson and the folks there are ready to take care of all and sundry from Prince Rupert who might like to go over to enjoy or participate in the sports.

> The triumph of Joyce Wethered in the British women's open golf championship was a foregone conclusion. Joyce stands supreme among the women of the world in the game of golf. Opinions may differ as to who is best among the men. Walter Hagen, Bobby ones, Archie Compston, George Duncan, Leo Diegel, all have their backers and for each a good argument can be put up, but where the women are concerned there is no room for argument. Joyce Wethered is 27 years old. She is good for many years of her best brand of golf still and during those years there will be no apprehension on the part of the British followers of golf. The title will stay in Eng-
