Proposal That Canada Refuse Clearance for Liquor Vessels to United States Discussed in Parliament Yesterday

OTTAWA, May 22.—The government of Canada is not disposed at present to accede to a request of the United States that clearance be denied to liquor shipments destined for that country. The door, however, is not closed and the Dominion government is ready to give consideration to such representations as it may receive on this important matter. The attitude of the government on the question of refusing the clearance of liquor cargoes was

CHANGES MADE IN THE POLICE

Walter Owen Becomes Warden of Jail at Oakalla

VICTORIA, May 22.—The following changes in the provincial police to become effective on June 1 are announced:

Inspector Walter Owen, assistant to Superintendent McMullin, will become warden in Oakalla jail. William G. McMynn, at present warden, will be superannuated. Inspector W. R. Dunwoody of Nelson will move to Vancouver, and Inspector Forbes Cruickshanks of Vancouver to Nelson. The post of assistant superintendent has been abolished.

AUSTRALIANS LAY WREATH

Cadets From Southern Continent Arrive at Vancouver and Are Welcomed

VANCOUVER, May 22.—One hundred and sixty Australian cadets who have toured Canada and the United States arrived here this morning. They were greeted by the Vancouver cadets and by Hon. R. L. Maitland, on behalf of the province, and by Alderman W. E. Dean on behalf of the city. At 10 o'clock this morning the Australians laid a wreath on the cenotaph.

MRS. FOGARTY MADE THREATS

Before Tunney Married She Signed Affidavit Declaring She Had Nothing Against Boxer

GENE SAYS IT'S JOKE

Lauder Family Say Whole Matter Was Discussed By Them Long Ago

NEW YORK, May 22.—Unqualified denials of claims of Mrs. Katherine King Fogarty, who seeks half a million dollars from Gene Tunney, have been made in behalf of the retired heavyweight champion and the "Lauder family." His wife was formerly Polly Lauder, Floyd E. Lauder, secretary to Mrs. George H. Lauder, said "the matter of Mrs. Fogarty was discussed at length by the Lauder family before the marriage. It was decided that there was nothing to claim." Tunney's attorney, George W. Whiteside, said, "Numerous threats of this kind have been made in the past by this woman. At that time very thorough investigation of her claims was made and they were found to be without the slightest merit." He noted the affidavit he said Mrs. Fogarty swore to at that time stating that her relations with Tunney were "at all times such as in no way to cast the slightest criticism or discredit upon him. I have no claim of any kind and never have," the affidavit said.

BRIONI, Italy, May 22.—"I know absolutely nothing of the report," James J. Tunney said when informed that the papers in a suit for alleged breach of promise had been sent to Bridgeport, Conn., for filing. "It must be another joke," he declared.

CHANGES SUGGESTED ON LIQUOR STAFFS

VICTORIA, May 22.—The proposed changes in the liquor board personnel following the report of Albert F. Griffiths may possibly affect Prince Rupert, among other places. There is to be a general revision throughout the province.

LIBERALS GET MUCH SUPPORT

All Independent Parties Voted With Them on Sales Tax Measure

OTTAWA, May 22.—Abolition of the sales tax on clothing, boots, and shoes was advocated in an amendment moved in the House of Commons this afternoon by I. D. McDougall, Conservative member for Inverness, which was defeated by 54 votes to 111, following a short debate. Conservatives voted solidly for it but the remainder of the House, including the U.F.A., Progressive and Labor members joined the Government supporters in defeating it.

The announcement of the large majority was greeted with cheers from the Liberal ranks. An amendment was moved to the motion for the third reading of the special War Revenue Act bill.

NICE LEGACY FOR MUSEUM

JUNEAU, May 22.—A legacy of $5000 from William P. Rauch has been made to the Alaska museum, the work of which is well known throughout the territory. The curious thing that is no one in Juneau seems to know anything about the man who left the money. He visited the territory several years ago and saw the museum. The money is now being paid over.

STEAMERS MOVE IN THE YUKON

WHITEHORSE, Y.T., May 22.—The steamer Nastulin left here yesterday afternoon with a heavy cargo of freight and a good passenger list for down river points. Steamer Aksala which wintered at Lower Lebarge in order to make the early trip in the spring, got away at 1:30 p.m. yesterday. It was held up because of an ice jam at Thirty Mile.

MRS. VICKERS WAS DOUBLY BEREAVED

Death of Her Husband Recently Was Followed Within Few Days by Loss of Brother

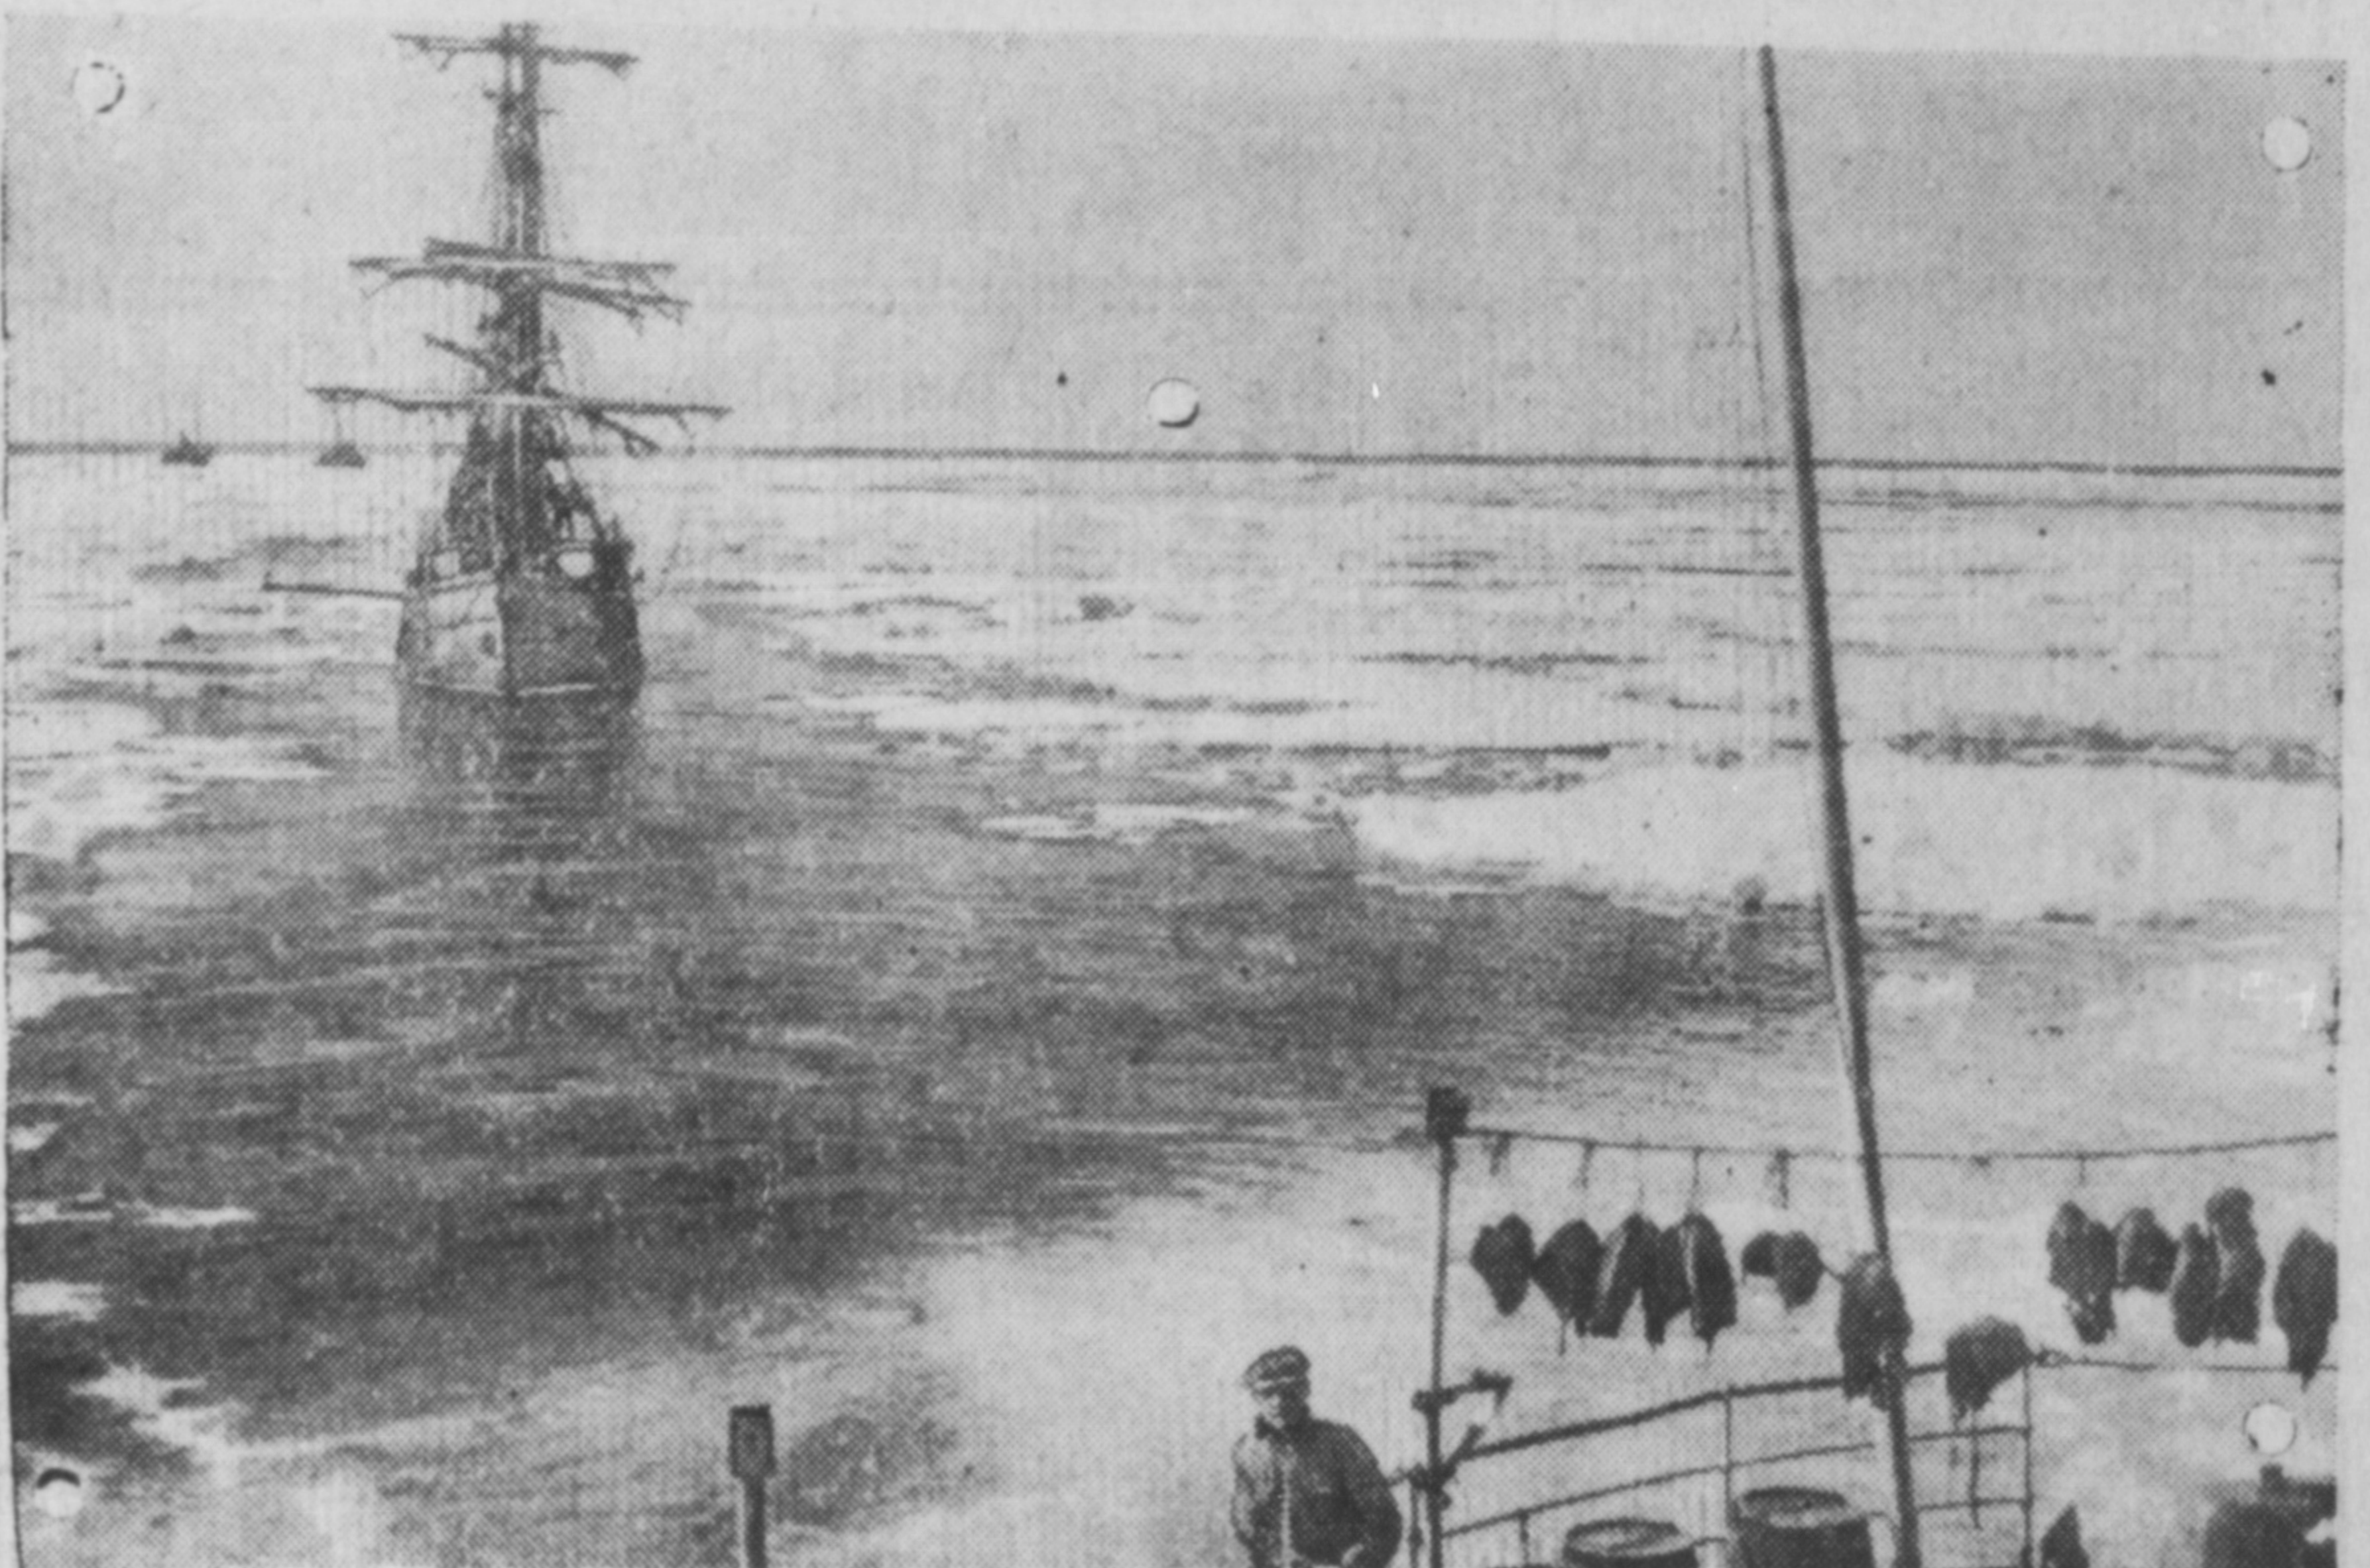

Just a few days after the death of her husband, who was Prince Rupert's pioneer chief of police, Mrs. W. H. Vickers was again bereaved by the death of a brother, Frederick Mellor, who was a well known Victoria sign painter. The late Mr. Mellor, who was 52 years of age, collapsed while he was cranking his car on the Pacific highway near Langford and was hurried by passers-by into St. Joseph's Hospital, Victoria, where he soon expired.

Mrs. Vickers will have the sympathy of many friends in Prince Rupert in her double bereavement.

Friday to be Big Day in the City Baseball, Dance

Children Will Have Their Sports in the Morning at Acropolis Hill Grounds

Friday of this week, May 24, is to be a big day here under direction of the fair board. The baseball season will open with a double-header, not league games, but between three of the league teams. This in itself will be a great attraction, as it will give local fans an idea of how the local boys are likely to line up.

In the morning the children will have their big time, cash prizes being given for the winners of races and other sports at Acropolis Hill.

And then comes the big dance in the evening. It is to be held in the exhibition hall and it is expected that the hall will be crowded for the occasion. There will be the best of music and everything is being done by the fair board to make this a success.

MINERAL STUDY OF HUDSON BAY

OTTAWA, May 22.—Dr. J. L. Weeks, geologist of the Geological Survey of Canada, leaves Sunday for an all-summer trip to the west coast of Hudson Bay, where he will make a detailed study with a view to discovering mineral possibilities of the area. He will be accompanied by two university students, a cook and four Eskimos.
